

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever.
Amen

A Service for the Worship of God
June 11, 2023
10:00 AM

To all who are weary and need rest,
To all who mourn and need comfort,
To all who are lonely and need friendship,
To all who are glad and would serve their neighbors,
To all who are complacent and need disturbing,
To all who sin and need a Savior,
This church opens wide its doors
In the name of Christ and bids you welcome.

Passing of the Peace

Prophecy Lesson..... Hosea 5:15-6:6

1 There's a wide-ness in God's mer-cy, like the wide-ness
 2 For the love of God is broad-er than the mea-sures of the sea. There's a kind-ness in God's jus-tice, of the mind. And the heart of the E-ter-nal which is more than lib-er-ty. There is no place where earth's is most won-der-ful-ly kind. If our love were but more sor-rows are more felt than up in heaven. There is no place faith-ful, we would glad-ly trust God's Word, and our lives re-where earth's fail-ings have such kind-ly judg-ment given.

 flect thanks-giv-ing for the good-ness of our Lord.

*Apostles' Creed

I BELIEVE in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Mayfield Mission

A group of 15 people traveled by plane, train and automobile to arrive in Mayfield, Kentucky on May 6 for a week of mission work. The town and surrounding areas were devastated in December of 2021 when an EF4 tornado ripped it apart. The devastation from the tornado was such that a Long Term Recovery Headquarters was established soon after the event due to the extent of the immense damage. The group worked tirelessly for six days doing what they were asked to do at six different work locations. Some of their efforts included siding, assembling beds, painting, demolishing a deck, cleaning yard debris and landscaping. They visited the Long Term Recovery Headquarters and with joy, they hand-delivered a check to the Lay Pastor at First Presbyterian Church in Mayfield.

Jeneane Ryan, RE, FPC Beaufort knew as soon as she learned about the tornado that she had to go and be of assistance. She has been in contact with FPC in Mayfield and others in the area for the past 18 months and her efforts to put a group together was successful. Along with Jeneane, the group included Bruce and Marie Kreutzer, (Bruce is Pastor of Hope Lutheran Church, Vance, SC and a member of CAP); Marion Middleton, Central Presbyterian Church, Anderson, SC; Lolita Watson, FPC-Beaufort; Betty and Bob Holt, FPC-Beaufort; Cheri and Steve Tompkins, Loudon, TN; Van and Ken Inman, Louisville, KY; Judy and Joe Hunter, Knox Presbyterian Church, Naperville IL; Ed and Janice Wiles, Knox Presbyterian Church, Naperville, IL. Jeneane has been involved in mission work for the past 20 years and some of the names from other areas are folks she has worked with over the years in other mission settings.

MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS

AWAKENING THE SPIRIT IN US TO BECOME MORE COMPASSIONATE.

"There is nothing that can have a more powerful effect on your mental health than the spirit of thankfulness."

IMPORTANT NOTICE - CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

to Elect Officers for the class of 2026 and At-Large Members of the Nominating Committee to be held TODAY following the Worship service.

Candidates for Elder

Hank Amundson is originally from Miami, Florida. The Presbyterian Church has played an important role in Hank's life. He was raised Presbyterian, met wife Ashley at Myers Park Pres. in Charlotte, and has previously served as Session member. Hank and his family moved to Beaufort in 2022 from Walterboro. While in Walterboro, the Amundsons attended Bethel Presbyterian Church and, later, Bethel Methodist Church, where Hank served on church council. Hank works in Administration for Beaufort County government. He and Ashley have 2 children, Isobel (Izzy)(12) and Henry (9). In his spare time, Hank enjoys playing golf, cooking, and spending time with his family.

Kevin Dukes grew up in North Augusta, South Carolina and has lived in Beaufort for 11 years. He is the proud husband of Courtney Dukes and father to Lane (8) and Ford (4). He is the Managing Partner of the law firm of Harvey & Battey and focuses his legal practice on real estate and property law issues. Kevin enjoys most outdoor activities, but hunting and fishing most of all. Most of his enjoyment comes from time spent with Courtney and the boys at the ballpark or on the boat.

Owen Hand moved to Beaufort at age 3 and began attending First Pres with his father and Scottish mother. He graduated from the University of South Carolina with a BS in Business Administration in 1966. After completing active duty with the Coast Guard Reserve he returned to Beaufort and began his financial planning practice in the summer of 1967. Ronny Tanner joined him in 1987 forming Hand & Tanner Financial Group. He and Patsy Flowers were married in First Pres in August 1968. Their daughter Leslie and son Kenny were baptized at First Presbyterian Church as were their two grandsons. He has served as a Deacon and Elder. He's an active Rotarian and involved with Honor Flight. When able, he and Patsy enjoy boating.

Sallie Sheppard was born in Aiken, SC but moved to Beaufort when she was 9. Lowcountry is in her blood and will always call Beaufort home. She is the Regional Manager for Capitol Coffee, a refreshment services distributor and has been servicing businesses for over 30 years. She cherishes relationships built through those partnerships and works to grow them more every day. She has twin daughters, Sarah and Anna, who both grew up with the help of Our First Presbyterian Beaufort Family. Watching them grow and learn is Sallie's favorite pastime, along with gardening and anything to do with salt water.

Candidates for Deacon

Joe Antinori grew up in Alpharetta, GA where he attended a Catholic school and church. He moved to Beaufort 17 years ago for a job opportunity. Joe enjoys hunting, fishing, boating, and watching Clemson football. He is married to his wonderful wife, Molly, and is very proud of his children, Pete and Kate, who attend Riverview Charter School. Joe and his family enjoy attending First Presbyterian Church services and events throughout the year. One of his favorite events is the annual Trunk-or-Treat where he serves his famous chicken bog.

Haley Dawson is originally from Gainesville, Georgia and has been in Beaufort since 2012. She grew up being active in the Episcopal church and feels blessed to have found her Lowcountry church home at First Pres. She and her husband, Jeff, have two daughters – Lily (4) and Scottie (2) and are thrilled to be raising them surrounded by the love and grace that has brought so many families to this special congregation. Hayley works as a project manager and enjoys teaching barre, taking yoga, and spending time with her family and friends.

Gary Pennington grew up in Loris, SC, on a family tobacco farm. He attended The Citadel and the USC School of Law. He founded Pennington Law Firm in Columbia in 1995, and after downsizing, relocated to Beaufort in 2019, with his wife, Caroline. He grew up in the Baptist faith but later joined First Pres. in Columbia and Downtown Church. Gary and Caroline enjoy traveling and spending time on the water. Gary has three adult children, Jordan, Cle, and Leah.

Tony Pierro was born in Albany, Georgia. He moved to Beaufort when he was 6 months old after his Father, a veteran of WW2, Korea and Vietnam, retired from the Marines. He grew up in a faithful Baptist family and became a member of the Presbyterian faith when he met his wife, Meghan. He is a commercial photographer and when not capturing images for clients he enjoys golf and watching his children, Peyton, Greyson and Katherine, play soccer and basketball."

Candidates for Nominating Committee – At-Large Members

Andrew Jones grew up in Beaufort and has many special memories of time at First Presbyterian Church in his youth. Upon moving back to Beaufort in 2013, Andrew and his wife, Leanne, joined the church where their son, Brinson, was baptized and has enjoyed the thriving children's program at FPC. Andrew has served on the finance committee, Diaconate and Session. He is a financial advisor at Verity Investment Partners.

Deb Noll was born in Snow Shoe Pennsylvania. She moved to Beaufort, SC in 1979 and joined First Presbyterian Church in 1980. She taught Sunday School for many years and was a Deacon for a term and a half. After retiring from a 38 year career as a teacher she joined the Evening Circle. That led to the role as PW treasurer for the past 10 years. She is the wife of Joe and mother of Meghan and Caitlin, all members of First Presbyterian. At most dinners you can find her in the kitchen aspiring to be another Betty Waskiewicz. In her words, "A goal that will never ever be achieved."

Ainsley Tayloe grew up in Eastern North Carolina in a devout Presbyterian family and has been in Beaufort for a decade. She is a Speech Language Pathologist at Riverview Charter School. Ainsley and her husband Thomas have 2 boys, Berry (8) and Archie (5). She enjoys spending time with her family on the boat, at the beach, at the pool, or whatever sports activities her boys are into at the moment. There is a good chance when you hear a 90s country song that Ainsley has done a tap dance or dance routine to it as she was a fervent dancer in her younger years.
