The Fifth Sunday in Lent
April 3, 2022

*To all who are weary and need rest,
To all who mourn and need comfort,
To all who are lonely and need friendship,
To all who are glad and would serve their neighbors,
To all who are complacent and need disturbing,
To all who sin and need a Savior,
This church opens wide its doors
In the name of Christ and bids you welcome.*

Prelude All Men Living Are But Mortal
G.F. KAUFFMAN

Choral Introit

*Welcome & Call to Worship - Psalm 126..... Geneva Baxley

When the Lord restores the fortunes of Zion,
We are like those who dream.
Then our mouth is filled with laughter,
And our tongue with shouts of joy;
Then was it said among the nations:
'The Lord has done great things for them.'
The Lord has done great things for us,
We shall rejoice.
Restore our fortunes, O Lord,
We shall rejoice.
Like the watercourses in the Negev.
We shall rejoice.
May those who sow in tears
Reap with shouts of joy.
Those who go out weeping,
Bearing the seed for sowing,
Shall come home with shouts of joy,
Carrying their sheaves.

+*Hymn Let Us With a Gladsome Mind

The musical score is written for four voices (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in a 4-part setting. It is in the key of B-flat major (two flats) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a clear harmonic structure. The lyrics are printed below the staves, with each line of music corresponding to a line of text. The first system of music covers the first four lines of the hymn, and the second system covers the next four lines. The music is arranged in a traditional hymn format, with the Soprano and Alto parts on the top staff and the Tenor and Bass parts on the bottom staff. The lyrics are: 1 Let us with a glad - some mind praise the; 2 God, with all - com - mand - ing might, filled the; 3 All things liv - ing God does feed; with full; 4 Let us with a glad - some mind praise the; Lord who is so kind: new - made world with light: mea - sure, meets their need: for God's mer - cies; Lord who is so kind:

Prayer of Confession

Holy God, you promise a life full of blessing, but we do not always believe. You incite us to hope, but we fall back into fear. You urge us to give freely, but we cling to what we have. You call us to watch at all times for you, but we grow lazy and self-absorbed. Forgive us. Increase our hope, enlarge our hearts, and keep us alert to the wonders you work in the world every day. (Let us continue in prayer silently)

Penitential Response.....from Psalm 51 set to TALLIS CANON

*Have mercy God in your great grace
Wash me from every staining trace
Of sin and evil I have done
I pray to you the Holy One*

*God, I will teach your ways of grace
And sinners then will seek your face
Save me and rescue, God of mine
And I will sing your praise divine*

Sermon Forgetting In Order to Remember
 Dr. Patrick Perryman

Apostles' Creed

I BELIEVE in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper

Invitation to the Lord's Table

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving and Our Lord's Prayer

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

In the beginning your Spirit swept across the face of the waters, bringing order and beauty out of chaos. You formed us in your image and breathed into us the breath of life. You made us in your own image; and in countless ways you show us your mercy. We praise you for Jesus Christ, who was tempted in every way we are, yet without sin, and who, having overcome temptation, is able to help us in our times of trial, and to give us strength to take up the cross and follow him.

Therefore we lift our hearts in joyful praise, joining our voices with choirs of angels, and with all the faithful of every time and place, who forever sing to your name:

Holy God, holy and merciful, holy and just,

Glory and goodness come from you.

You glorified your Son on the cross

And raised him up to rule all creation.

Holy God, we are overwhelmed by the depth of your love for us made known in your Son. For Jesus showed just how beloved we are, by loving us and giving himself for us. He washed his disciples' feet and told us, 'I am among you as one who serves.'

Help us, O God, to love as Christ loved. Knowing our own weakness, may we stand with all who stumble. Sharing in his suffering, may we remember all who suffer. Held in his love, may we embrace all whom the world denies. Rejoicing in his forgiveness, may we forgive all who sin against us. Give us strength to serve you faithfully until the promised day of resurrection, when with the redeemed of all ages we will feast with you at your table in glory.

Send your Holy Spirit, that we who receive Christ's body may indeed be the body of Christ, and we who share in his cup draw strength from the one true vine.

Praise, glory and love be yours, this and every day, in this place and in every place. We pray you receive the prayer Jesus taught us:

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our debts,
As we forgive our debtors;
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom
And the power
And the glory, forever.
Amen
