

- The law, as it did in Paul and Timothy's days, points to the need for a Savior from our sins. Are we consistently sinning in one aspect of life? Do we consistently pray for God to help me with this sin?

Am I ignoring the Holy Spirit's answer and direction?

- Are there people entrusted to me where I see transgressions and imprisonment as Paul describes? How can we help them?

- For parents, are we spending time with our children imparting to them sound teaching and doctrine? See Deut. 6:6-7
