Stewardship is a Way of Life

Today's readings remind us that God nourishes His people both physically and spiritually. In St. Matthew's Gospel, Jesus feeds more than 5,000 people with only five loaves of bread and two fish, foreshadowing His greatest gift to us in the Eucharist. At every Mass, ordinary bread and wine become the true Body and Blood of Christ. As St. Paul reminds us, nothing can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus. Grateful for this gift, Christian stewards respond by living their faith, sharing the Gospel and embracing stewardship as a way of life.
