Stewardship is a Way of Life

The Scripture passages from Isaiah the prophet, St. Paul's Letter to the Romans, and St. Matthew's Gospel teach us that, from Old Testament times to the time of Jesus and the Apostles, all who seek God's will and commands — Jew or Gentile — are welcomed into the community of faith. In a spirit of evangelization, today's Church welcomes all to the parish communion. By Jesus' life, death and Resurrection, everyone has the opportunity to gain eternal salvation. Welcoming strangers and showing hospitality is a sign of a stewardship parish. As we strive to embrace evangelization and promote stewardship as a way of life, are we, as a parish, extending a warm welcome to all?
