Stewardship A way of living

Stewardship is a Way of Life

Through the prophet Isaiah, God declares to powerful king Cyrus that He, and no other, is Lord. In St. Matthew's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that while God expects good stewards to pay their fair share of taxes to the government, our ultimate loyalty is to Him. His ways should reign supreme in our lives, such as when government supports immoral threats to human life, Christian marriage, human rights, and injustice. We, as Christ's disciples, are called to take a stand against this misuse of funds and authority. St. Paul, in his First Letter to the Thessalonians, acknowledges the struggles the faithful have in following Christ in any era. As we strive to make stewardship a way of life in today's hostile culture, we must, in a spirit of evangelization, draw closer toJesus and His moral teaching. Consider joining a parish faith formation program or enrolling in classes at Sacred Heart Major Seminary to strengthen your knowledge of Jesus' moral truth.
