Mary's Month of Grace
Dear Family ,

May arrives like a gentle hymn, inviting us to slow down, breathe deeply, and rediscover the tenderness of God. It is the month of Our Blessed Mother, whose quiet strength and unwavering trust continue to guide the Church.

A simple story captures the heart of May.

A young boy once planted a small rose bush for his mother. Every day he watered it, even when no buds appeared. Weeks passed, and he grew discouraged. One morning, he told his grandmother, "Maybe it will never bloom." She smiled and said, "Flowers grow in silence. Keep loving it, and it will surprise you."

One bright May morning, the boy ran outside and found a single red rose opening toward the sun. He shouted with joy, "It listened to my love!"

Mary teaches us the same truth.

Grace grows quietly. Hope blossoms slowly. God works in the hidden places of our hearts long before we see the results.

As we crown Mary this month, we place our families, our worries, and our dreams into her gentle hands. She leads us to Jesus, reminding us that every act of love—no matter how small—can bloom into something beautiful.

May her intercession fill our parish with peace, healing, and renewed joy.

Peace
Fr George, Pastor

Adoration is every Friday from 6:00-6:30 p.m. after 5:30 p.m. Mass at Our Lady of Perpetual Help.
