

Introducing Ebony Fadis, Advisory Board Member Candidate

Ebony Fadis, Advisory Board Member Candidate has a heart for the city and a heart for The Lord. As an entrepreneur, she is the Owner/Founder of Queenship LLC, an initiative focused on discipling women, strengthening families, and fostering collaboration among leaders and communities. Through Queenship, she also provides mental health and wellness support alongside life coaching, creating spaces for healing, growth and transformation.

Prior to launching her own business, Ebony served in the U.S. Army (2000-2004), worked for the National Youth Advocate Program and for Nationwide Children's Hospital. Collectively, she has been serving youth and families as a Certified Parenting Coach and Qualified Mental Health Specialist (QMHS) since 2018. As a nonprofit leader, Ebony's service includes Board Chair of We Are Linden, Board Member of Parable Project and the Founder/Executive Director of Village 624, which she launched in 2021.

As a devoted Woman of God, Ebony discovered FCA through a Devotional Bible App in 2018 and she subsequently enrolled her son in an FCA Summer Camp and was introduced to Matt Dascenzo, FCA Area Director of Columbus City Schools. Ebony's passion for servanthood and her talent in leadership equips her to further her involvement with both the Columbus City Schools FCA Committee Chair and Central Ohio FCA Advisory Board. She attends City of Grace Church in Columbus, Ohio, where she leads the Graceful Hearts Community Team, an outreach ministry focused on meeting the practical and spiritual needs of the community.
