

Introducing Tony Haislar, FCA Advisory Board Member

Tony Haislar, FCA Advisory Board Member graduated from Bishop Fenwick High School in Middletown, Ohio and then moved to Columbus to attend The Ohio State University where he earned his Bachelor of Arts in Criminology. Tony continued his education at Tiffin University where he earned his Master's in Public Administration and Criminal Justice. After working for the Department of Rehabilitation & Corrections in Columbus, Ohio for 7 years, Tony changed gears and began his IT Career in 2006 with Nationwide Insurance.

In 2015, Tony pivoted to IT Sales and his robust career took him to Houston and then eventually brought him back to Columbus. Tony has worked for companies such as Experis, Kforce, Agility Partners, NetJets and is currently at Narwal, a National IT Services Company, as V.P. of Strategic Accounts.

Throughout Tony's youth he played baseball, basketball, football and after a knee injury he focused on golf. "I played baseball the longest---from t-ball through high school. I always loved the team aspect and camaraderie of playing sports." Tony was introduced to FCA via Cliff Rich, who was originally a client of Tony's. They became friends and their conversation turned towards spirituality. Cliff invited Tony to the 2023 Legends Luncheon honoring Aaron Craft. Tony has supported FCA through his participation in two FCA Annual Golf Outings. As a Man of God, Husband and Father of four, he is a devoted Christian and attends Rock City Polaris where has led a Prison Ministry the past 4 years. Tony also volunteers his time as a Committee Member with Central Ohio Belonging Consortium and has been doing so since 2023.
