KEVIN AGENA PROMOTED TO EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Hawaiian Properties (HP) is proud to announce the promotion of Kevin Agena to Executive Vice President. In this elevated role, Kevin will oversee the strategic direction and operations of the company's community association division, collaborating closely with the senior leadership team to further enhance client service and value. Kevin will also continue supporting Kona operations and collaborating with developers to ensure project success and long-term sustainability.

With nearly 40 years in the real estate industry, Kevin has managed a diverse portfolio of condominiums, city, HUD, and residential units, and is currently involved in major developments such as Sky Ala Moana, Park on Keeaumoku, Kali'u, Kahuina, Muse, and Kuilei Place.

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to Kevin on his promotion and look forward to the continued success he will bring to Hawaiian Properties.

HP currently manages 331 associations on Oahu and 78 on the island of Hawaii, encompassing more than 45,000 units. We take pride in delivering personalized service with a thoughtful touch, backed by professional standards and large company resources.
