THE BIG "THING"

Sunday School classes or Bible Study groups greatly contribute to the spiritual health and growth of individuals as well as churches. The Bible teaches us that biblical community is essential for the life of the follower and to the entire church. The research and general observation reveals to us the benefits of a strong Sunday School/Small Group ministry.

Bible Engagement

Healthy classes/groups study the Bible. Those who attend a group spend significantly more time reading and studying the Bible than those not in group or class. The number one factor in spiritual growth is regular Bible engagement.

Evangelistic Accountability

Healthy classes/groups look for opportunities to both show and tell the gospel to both those in and outside the group. When we are in the Word and it is in us, we cannot help but tell others the Good News of Christ.

Increased Retention

People who attend a class/group are five times more likely to stay connected to the church than those who only attend the worship service. People stick because of the relationships, but they also stay because they are more than likely involved in ministry.

Enhanced Discipleship

In a group people experience biblical influence. To see people grow they must weekly be in worship, in a small group/class, and doing ministry.

Better Stewardship

Giving has always been higher from among those that attend a class/group than from those that just attend worship. People give to things in which they are involved in and believe in their mission or purpose.

Multiplied Ministry

Care for others becomes a natural part of life for those in a group. They tend to shepherd one another because they have come to know and love one another.

At the Floyd County Baptist Association we believe in the value of Sunday School classes and Small Group Bible Studies! Every three months we conduct THE SUMMIT. It is a gathering for Sunday School (continued on pg. 2) teachers and small group leaders. Our next Summit is in just a few days—Thursday, April 18th at Pleasant Valley North Baptist Church. See page 8 for more information. I hope you and others from your church will gather with us for this very important training opportunity.

If I can be of service to you or your church, please do not hesitate to contact me. I love serving the Lord and I am so blessed to be serving with you in Rome and Floyd County.

Remember, our mission is... "encouraging and equipping pastors and people to do the Great Commandment and the Great Commission" and our nine priorities are "praying, reaching, discipling, going, caring, growing, training, giving and next gen".

MINISTERS MONTHLY MEETING

Just about every month we invite all of our pastors (full-time, part-time, bi-vocational, senior pastor, ministerial staff, or retired pastor/minister) to attend our Monthly Ministers Meeting (MMM). Generally, the MMM is on the second Thursday of every month. The MMM is our regular lunch gathering for the purpose of food, fellowship, insight and encouragement. Lunch is provided. The only request is that you make a reservation in order to make adequate preparations for the FREE lunch. Here is what's coming up:

* THURSDAY, April 18th The #1 request from pastors today is "help me lead my church through all these changes". Todd Wright has been the pastor at Midway Church in Villa Rica for almost 30 years. When he arrived it was a single race church of about 200, mostly older adults; but today, it is a place where over 3,600 racially diverse people with an average age of 34 serve and receive ministry together. Midway has been recognized as one of the fastest-growing churches in Georgia for several years. Todd has led this church to change and he will be with us to share "Leading Your Church Through Change". Todd has provided leadership training in the US and 15 countries in Africa, Asia, Central America, Europe, and South America. Please RSVP by noon on Tuesday, April 16th by calling the FCBA Office at 706-291-0904 or by e-mailing fcbaoffice@gmail.com.

* THURSDAY, May 9th We will have the co-president of the Georgia-Etowah Valley chapter of Sleep in Heavenly Peace which proudly serves the Etowah Valley region including Floyd, Polk, and Bartow Counties. All children deserve a safe, comfortable place to lay their heads. In our community too many boys and girls go without a bed - or even a pillow - to sleep on. These children end up sleeping on couches, blankets, and even floors. This can affect their happiness and health. That is where Sleep in Heavenly Peace comes in. They are a group of volunteers dedicated to building, assembling and delivering top-notch bunk beds to children and families in need. Sleep in Heavenly Peace has grown steadily over time, and they have chapters all over the United States and all over the world. We are excited to hear from Steven Wisenburg. Please RSVP by noon on Tuesday, May 7th by calling the FCBA Office at 706-291-0904 or by e-mailing fcbaoffice@gmail.com.

* We will NOT have a Ministers Monthly Meeting in June or July. Enjoy your summer!!

The goal for all of our MMM gatherings is inspiration and information.
We always have a great time of fellowship and encouragement!

LIFT UP YOUR PASTOR

Dr. Tim S. Smith, Director of Missions, Floyd County Baptist Association says:

"Rick Standard has met with me and shared a unique ministry idea that I believe could be a blessing to the pastors and churches of our association. Rick has my endorsement as he launches this ministry. Please take a moment to read the following information that describes what the Lord has laid on his heart. He also had the opportunity to speak with our pastors during one of our Monthly Ministers Meetings."

Andy Childs, Pastor Wellness Catalyst, Georgia Baptist Mission Board:

"As a pastor and former associational missionary, Rick Standard understands the need for pastors to unplug from the on-going demands of ministry to refresh and recharge. Rick's burden has led him to make himself available to partner with pastors and churches to make intentional focused time away a reality. I encourage you to prayerfully consider allowing Rick to be a blessing to both the pastor and the church."

"Lift Up the Pastor Sabbatical Ministry"

Dr. Rick Standard

"I have been in the ministry for forty-eight years pastoring churches most of that time. I know what it feels like to be emotionally and spiritually drained and to need some time away to get recharged."

Your pastor needs a break from the constant demands of ministry. What can you do to help? Rick would like to assist your pastor and your church by "Lifting Him Up" and giving him a break to recharge by taking a sabbatical. Rick offers to: fill in for your pastor in the pulpit for 2 to 5 weeks and there will be no charge for him coming.

"We worshiped alongside friends and family at other churches and even took a trip to the Ark Encounter. I would highly encourage any church to make use of this ministry to bless your family and church."

Jeff Wells, Pastor
Friendship Baptist Church in Danielsville

"I heartily recommend Dr. Standard's ministry to each pastor and congregation as it serves as a benefit to both parties. Our church family was encouraged by his messages over those two Sundays."

Mike Sarna, Pastor
Meadow Baptist Church in Comer

RECHARGE: A PASTOR WELLNESS ENCOURAGEMENT EVENT

“Continuing the Call: Encouragement to Persevere” with Mel Blackaby

Monday, April 15, 2024 10:30 am - 1:00 pm

First Baptist Church - Cartersville

241 Douthit Ferry Road Cartersville, Georgia 30120

Recharge is a fellowship opportunity for pastors built on worship and encouragement. This event is FREE and includes lunch.

Recharge features Mel Blackaby, who will focus on the topic, “Continuing the Call: Encouragement to Persevere.” Mel Blackaby currently serves as Senior Pastor of First Baptist Church of Jonesboro, Georgia. He is a graduate of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary (M.Div. 1991; Ph.D. 1997). It was in the pioneer mission field of Canada that the Lord shaped his life for ministry. He has a deep concern for a world without Christ, as well as a shepherd’s heart that longs to see people grow in their walk with God. Even though he is an author and conference speaker, his first love remains with ministry in the local church. First Baptist Jonesboro is literally impacting the world as it preaches in seven languages every Sunday, is heavily invested in church planting and world missions, as well as being committed to reaching and training the next generation of leaders.

Mel and his wife, Gina, have three children. As a family, they have learned to “enjoy the journey!” So they balance a busy schedule with a love for horses, sports and traveling.

If you have any questions, contact Loretta Crow at lcrow@gabaptist.org or (770) 936-5232.

NEED HELP? The Georgia Baptist Crisis and Access Line (24/7) 1-800-715-4225

As I write this, we are in the middle of Holy Week soon to celebrate Good Friday and Easter Sunday. Our church recently celebrated the Lord's Supper together as a congregation, and the Lord gave me a gentle reminder that communion is a lot like the cross. There is a vertical element, yes, but there is also a horizontal one. As we focus and examine our relationship with the Lord, it is important for us to remember our fellowship with one another as well.

I believe this is also true when it comes to the fellowship between our churches in the community. May we never lose sight of our connection as brothers and sisters in Christ, as well as the tie that binds us as fellow laborers in ministry. Growing up, my church would often sing a certain song together at the end of the service, as it still resonates in my heart today. "Bless be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love, The fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above." (Bless Be the Tie, 1782) We're better together! This is one of my prayers for our Association: that all of us make every effort to worship, work and walk together for His glory in our community and beyond.

In His service, Mac McCurry, Pleasant Valley North (pastormac@pvNBC.org)

SHORTER UNIVERSITY BCM

It is hard to believe that the Spring Semester is almost over! After this weekend, we only have three more weeks of classes and then finals. The BCM at Shorter has been busy with our missions fundraiser, BCM talent show, spring break mission trip to Montana, and prayer/outreach event on campus - asking the question to anyone walking by on campus on March 27th, "What is hope?". We will be giving out donuts, coffee, hot chocolate and water while asking students how we can pray for them, as well as asking the question, "What is hope?". Next week we will sponsor an evening where students can text us a question and receive a taco. We are calling it, "Talk about Jesus". We are using this event to share about God's love and the Good News of Jesus coming to save us and dwell in us!

We are in the midst of receiving leadership applications for next year's Leadership Team. We currently have fourteen applications. Next, we will interview each one and see where they might best fit in with our leadership structure.

In Montana, we served with The Expedition Church in Livingston, Montana. Our students worked with the children and youth at the church. We also served at a local assisted living facility on two different days. We served a meal to the students at a Christian school called, The Way. The students there enjoyed playing with our students during recess. Painting was on the schedule at the new facility for volunteers at the local Boys and Girls Club. We prayed with the ministry staff at The Expedition Church. We prayer walked in downtown Livingston as well. The theme for the week was "service". Our goal was to serve and share the love of Jesus. Please pray for the Murphys, who are from Calhoun, as they serve in this church.

David Roland, BCM Campus Minister (email: droland@shorter.edu)

BERRY COLLEGE BCM

There is about 1 month of school left in the spring semester at Berry College. We have several seniors graduating this year. We are looking forward to them pursuing their goals and dreams, but will miss their leadership on campus. God has provided several student leaders to take their place next year. Please be praying for Ashton, Mary, Susie, Roger, Kyla, and Leah who will make up our 2024-2025 Leadership Team.

Our Monday night worship and Bible study will finish the entire book of Philippians by the end of the semester.

In March, we took 15 individuals to the Northwest Georgia Hunger Ministries and packed about 800 backpack buddies. These bags of food are given out to certain students on Fridays in our local school systems.

On Easter, we celebrated with the rest of Berry College at a special evening service at the House of Dreams on Lavender Mountain. A special thank you to Pleasant Valley North, Pleasant Valley South, New Armuchee, Floyd Springs, West Rome, Fellowship, Sherwood, and Northside for bringing lunch and providing a devotional during our Wednesday meetings.

David Slocum, BCM Campus Minister (email: davidaslocum@gmail.com)

LEE STROBEL Returns

WITH ROME NATIVE
BILLY NEAL
MOORE

A Morning of Friends and Faith

Thursday, May 2, 2024

Forum River Center

7:00 - 8:30 AM

Lee Strobel is returning to Rome as one of our speakers alongside Roman, Billy Moore. Moore is featured in Strobel's book "The Case for Faith". He was convicted of murder and sentenced to death in Georgia. Fortunately his story doesn't end there. After receiving Jesus as his personal savior, he spent the remaining 16 years ministering to others on death row. Hours before he was to be executed his sentence was commuted and ultimately he was freed. This is a powerful story of a man's redemption through God's grace and mercy.

Lee has been described in the Washington Post as "one of the evangelical community's most popular apologists." He was educated at the University of Missouri (Bachelor of Journalism degree) and Yale Law School (Master of Studies in Law degree). He was a journalist for fourteen years at The Chicago Tribune and other newspapers, winning Illinois' highest honors for both investigative reporting and public service journalism from United Press International.

After probing the evidence for Jesus for nearly two years, Lee became a Christian in 1981. He subsequently became a teaching pastor at three of America's largest churches and hosted the national network TV program Faith Under Fire. In addition, he taught First Amendment law at Roosevelt University and was Professor of Christian Thought at Houston Baptist University.

In 2017, Lee's spiritual journey was depicted in an award-winning motion picture, The Case for Christ, which showed in theaters around the world. The movie was on Netflix for three years. Lee won national awards for his books The Case for Christ, The Case for Faith, The Case for a Creator, and The Case for Grace. His latest books are The Case for Miracles and The Case for Heaven.

The Christian Post named Lee among the top evangelicals who had made an impact in 2017. He was selected as one of the thirty most influential Christian thinkers of the past two millennia in the 2019 book Faith Thinkers, written by Dr. Robert M. Bowman, Jr.

The FCBA is a sponsor and we have limited tickets. To get these special tickets, contact Dr. Tim S. Smith at fcbadom@gmail.com. This is on a first come-first served basis, but please do not ask for these tickets if you do not plan to attend.

The past two years of Prayer Walking our Schools has been a BIG success and last year we had 1,908 prayer walking on 39 local campuses representing 53 area churches. We are excited about Prayer Walking our Schools again this year but we are moving it up to Sunday, July 28th. We've made this move to be able to do our Prayer Walking BEFORE our local school systems start (Floyd County 8/1 & Rome 8/2). We will again go with the same church/school match up from last year but with a few changes and some addition of new churches.

We have 41 campuses that need to be engaged and prayed for! Please see the list on the following page. Our goal is to have at least one church prayer walking every campus. If your church is not listed please contact the FCBA office to be added to the list. On May 10th the list of schools and churches prayer walking those schools will be finalized. The list will be sent to the churches, posted on the FCBA website and social media. We will send a letter and email to all school principals the first of July letting them know we are coming to pray and the church names and contact information that has their school. We also encourage every pastor and church to contact the school(s) to work out the details about the Prayer Walking Day on Sunday, July 28th Thanks for all you are doing to reach Rome and Floyd County.
