October is Pastor Appreciation Month!

This month, we're taking a little extra time to say "thank you" to Pastor Steve for the many ways he serves our Immanuel family.

From Sunday worship and Bible study to hospital visits, prayers, the food pantry, teaching religion, and all the moments in between, ministry happens in countless ways, many of them behind the scenes.

Help us celebrate Pastor Steve this month! Leave a note of encouragement, share a favorite memory, or simply let him know how his ministry has touched your life.

Pastor, thank you for faithfully pointing us to Christ, encouraging us in our faith, praying with and for us, and walking alongside the congregation through both the joys and challenges of life. We are grateful for your leadership, your heart for people, and most of all, your dedication to sharing God's Word.

"And we urge you, brothers and sisters... to hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work." 1 Thessalonians 5:12-13

A LIFE OF FAITH, SERVICE & COMMUNITY

For Corinne Hein, Immanuel Lutheran Church has truly been home for more than 50 years. Corinne has been a member of Immanuel since 1974, first coming to the church through the school. Over the years, both the church and school have become an important part of her life and her faith journey.

What makes Immanuel feel like home to Corinne is “the caring Christian community of the church and school.” She especially enjoys serving and being part of the church community, find great joy in the opportunity to serve others.

Corinne is active in church ministry, serving both the Day School Commission and the Food Pantry. Looking ahead, she would love to see a women's Bible study return to Immanuel and is excited to see the school growing and is looking forward to celebrating ICA's 175th anniversary next fall.

One of the most meaningful parts of Corinne's faith journey has been recognizing how God places people in our lives exactly when we need them. She remembers Ken Becker, who was principal when her daughter, Laura attended school. She is reminded of the caring, loving people who were there during the hard times, especially after the loss of her daughter, Sarah in 1983 and loss of her husband, Bob in 2010, but also the happy moments: baptisms, confirmations, graduations, and marriages

Corinne says her faith encourages her in everyday life by reminding her how God works things out and provides answers to all the questions when she surrenders to His will. Her favorite Bible passage is found in John 11:25-26 (NIV): “Jesus said to her, ‘I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die.’”

Her faith is lived out not only in what she believes, but also in her willingness to serve and be present for others.

When Corinne isn't serving at Immanuel, she enjoys reading, playing the piano, walking, road trips, eating out, and most of all, spending time with her grandchildren.

There are also a few things about Corinne that might surprise you! She attended a one-room grade school in South Dakota, was raised on a farm, and, yes, she can milk a cow!

If she could take a special trip, Corinne would love to visit the national parks in Utah. Her favorite season is fall, her favorite holiday is Christmas, and Christmas Eve is her favorite Christmas tradition. She enjoys visiting the Morton Arboretum, loves the Rolling Stones, and her favorite movie is I Can Only Imagine 2. Her favorite book is The Women, and when it comes to cheese, she chooses Swiss.

-  Coffee or tea? Coffee!
-  Sweet or salty? Salty
-  Summer or winter? Summer
-  Cubs or Sox? Cubs!
-  Coffee hour favorite? Cake and pie
-  Favorite restaurant? Anyways!

When asked what she is most thankful to God for, Corinne's answer is simple and heartfelt: her family and friends.

She hopes to bring her friendship to the Immanuel church family and would love to see the congregation grow.

After more than five decades as part of Immanuel, Corinne continues to remind us that faith is not just about attending church, it is about serving, building relationships, recognizing God's hand at work, and being there for one another. We are thankful for Corinne and for the many ways she continues to share her time, talents, friendship, and faith with the Immanuel family!

Heavenly Father,

As the leaves change and fall, teach me to let go of my worries and rest in Your care. Pour out Your healing upon the sick, Your comfort upon the sorrowful, and Your strength upon the weary. Let Your light shine upon Your church, guiding every choice we make so that we may walk in wisdom and love.

The fellowship of prayer consists of caring people who pray daily for members in the church. Members and their families will be listed in alphabetical order each month. Please pray for both their known and unknown needs. School Families in italics.

FROM A SIMPLE QUESTION TO A GROWING MINISTRY

Immanuel Lutheran Church Food Pantry Glorifies God by Impacting the Community

HILLSIDE, IL. — What began as a simple question about Immanuel Lutheran Church's impact on its community has grown into a thriving food ministry serving hundreds of local families and partnering with churches and organizations throughout the region.

In 2016, Immanuel Lutheran Church in Hillside worked with Rev. Keith Haney of the Northern Illinois District to develop its mission and vision. During the process, Rev. Haney asked the congregation, "If your church ceased to exist today, would people in the community miss it?"

That question helped inspire Immanuel's mission statement: "Glorifying God by Impacting Our Community." It also helped launch a community garden, which eventually became the foundation for an even larger outreach effort.

Church member Jayne Siou became involved with the garden after retirement and began writing grants to support the ministry. Her first successful grant provided $2,500 for tools and supplies. Additional grants helped fund a greenhouse and other church and school projects.

When the COVID-19 pandemic disrupted the community garden and food insecurity increased, Siou saw a greater need. "We must expand our food ministry to a food pantry," she recalled.

During the pandemic, Siou wrote more than 40 grant applications, securing funding for shelving, food and other necessities. As demand grew, Immanuel developed partnerships with food pantries, churches, schools, food rescue organizations and Midwest Food Bank.

At one point, Immanuel helped distribute donated food among approximately 30 churches and food ministries. Today, the pantry continues to work with organizations including Hope Lutheran in Hillside, Holy Apostles Greek Orthodox in Westchester, Walther Christian Academy, St. John Montrose, St. Paul Oak Lawn, Immanuel Lutheran Des Plaines, Elmwood Park Community Church and Ebenezer Christian Reformed Church in Berwyn.

Approximately 35 regular volunteers now help with the ministry's monthly distribution.

Former Immanuel Christian Academy teacher Pat Pygman said the ministry provides just as much to those serving as it does to those receiving assistance.

"It's a wonderful, loving, caring, giving mission for everyone including us. We're serving the Lord in this capacity, and I'm happy to be a part of that."

The ministry has also strengthened fellowship within the congregation. Volunteers spend hours serving alongside one another, building relationships while meeting practical needs throughout the community.

Immanuel's first major community food distribution took place in June 2020. At the height of the pandemic, the ministry served approximately 300 families each month. Today, it serves about 175 families, with roughly 100 attending the primary distribution held on the second Saturday of each month. Additional smaller distributions are offered during the month.

The pantry does not limit assistance to specific family types or require recipients to prove their need.

"All we care about is that we can help people who need food," Siou said. "That's our mission."

Former Immanuel Christian Academy student and pantry volunteer Evan Nelson describes his service as being "a small part of a big thing."

"I love giving back to everyone and seeing the smiles on people's faces and knowing that they've got food and can go a little farther and take care of a little more," he said.

Rev. Steve Deombeleg, pastor of Immanuel Lutheran Church, said the ministry demonstrates what can happen when people come together in service.

What God has done and continues to do at Immanuel is truly remarkable. Members and friends of Immanuel are the heartbeat of this ministry, and we are thankful for what God is doing."

The impact is perhaps best reflected in the families themselves. After receiving emergency assistance following a power outage and flooding, one pantry recipient contacted the church to express his gratitude, sharing how excited his children were to see favorite cereals and snacks among the donated food.

He thanked the congregation and volunteers for being "servants of the Most High" and for providing for his family during a difficult time.

For Siou and Immanuel's many volunteers, moments like that are the reason the ministry continues.

To God be the glory.

TEACHING WITH GRACE

For nearly 20 years, on and off, Kameithia Smith has been helping students learn, grow, and discover their potential. This year marks her first as a member of the Immanuel Christian Academy family, and she brings with her a love of teaching inspired by two remarkable women: her grandmother, who was a teacher, and her aunt, who recently retired after 40 years in education and speech therapy.

One of Mrs. Smith's favorite parts of teaching at ICA is her morning routine, when students spend time journaling and she has the opportunity to get to know them better. Her faith is at the heart of the way she leads her classroom.

"My faith has taught me compassion," she shares. "It allows me to extend the same grace, patience, love, respect, and compassion to my students that Christ shows to us."

Mrs. Smith also encourages her students to grow in their faith through poetry and journaling. As they write and reflect, she challenges them to approach their thoughts and words with a Christ-like perspective.

Although math is her favorite subject, she loves to teach language arts. She is especially excited about a classroom event /project happening later this year, but for now, she will only reveal that it is a "holiday surprise." She also hopes to bring one of her students' favorite traditions to ICA: taco parties!

Her students may be surprised to learn that Mrs. Smith is also a minister! Whether she is teaching, writing, or sharing her faith, she strives to treat each student fairly and help them become the person God has created them to be. For her, the best part of being a teacher is simply "seeing them grow."

Just for fun

- Favorite Bible verses is Colossians 3:23 / Proverbs 31:26
- Favorite childhood subject: Creative writing
- Favorite drink: Tea—all kinds!
- Favorite book besides the Bible: Their Eyes Were Watching God
- Dream destination: Greece
- Favorite season: Autumn
- Favorite treat: Vanilla or strawberry ice cream
- Favorite school event: School plays
- Favorite sports team: Green Bay Packers
- Favorite school supply: Hand sanitizer
- Her students make her smile when: They follow directions
- One word she hopes her students use to describe her: Fair

Colossians 3:23:

"Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men."

We are grateful to welcome Mrs. Smith to the ICA family. May God continue to bless her first year at ICA as she shares her knowledge, compassion, creativity, and faith with her students!

FROM THE COURT TO THE STAGE

8th Grader, Jessica Muskwe loves learning, creating, and spending time with her friends at Immanuel Christian Academy. Her favorite subject is math, and if she could be a teacher for a day, that is exactly what she would teach! Mrs. Woodruff and Jessica's entire class always make her smile, and she is happiest when she is working together with her friends.

Jessica is especially talented at volleyball. In fact, volleyball is both her favorite sport and one of her favorite school activities. She also enjoys choir, participating in the school musicals, spending time with friends at recess, and eating ICA's cheesy breadsticks for lunch. Her favorite school event is the Fine Arts Fest.

Faith is an important part of Jessica's experience at Immanuel. Her favorite Bible story is the entire story of David. While at ICA, Jessica has learned that faith in God saves us and gives us the assurance of His forgiveness. She feels she can serve God and others through singing.

When asked what she is most thankful for. She says "that God brought me to Immanuel!"

"ICA is special to me because of the support it gives."

Jessica's friends would describe her as smart and sometimes quiet. She dreams of learning how to bake pastries and hopes to become an actress when she grows up. If she could choose any superpower, she would want to read minds, and if she could have any animal as a pet, she would choose a snow leopard!

As Jessica completes her eighth-grade year, we look forward to seeing where God leads her next. With her strong faith, intelligence, creativity, and many talents, we know she has a bright future ahead. We are proud to have Jessica as part of the ICA family and cannot wait to see all that she accomplishes!

ALUMNI: WHERE ARE THEY NOW ?

Friendships & First Chair: Spotlight on Kennedy Honey

For Kennedy Honey, Immanuel Christian Academy was a place to learn, grow, and build friendships that continue today. A member of ICA's Class of 2022, Kennedy spent seven years at Immanuel before attending Walther Christian Academy. She is now a freshman at Concordia University Chicago, majoring in music.

Looking back, she remembers Miss Winston as the teacher who had the greatest lasting impact on her for a simple but meaningful reason: "Miss Winston made school fun." She also credits Mrs. Woodruff's math instruction with preparing her for high school and beyond by making math easy to understand. Weekly chapel helped shape her faith and strengthen her relationship with God.

Her favorite ICA memories include a trip to the UniverSoul Circus and an end-of-school celebration filled with games and music in the parking lot. If she could return to Immanuel for just one day, that would be her choice!

As long as I'm breathing
I've got a reason to Praise the Lord

Kennedy at Walther's Jazz Band BHM Program

Some of the most lasting gifts of her years at ICA are her friendships. Kennedy remains close to Garionna, Jayla, Savion, and Elysia. Her advice to current students is to build strong friendships now. She recognizes that high school can bring new challenges and that the kindness students experience at ICA is something special. Having good friends beside you can make navigating those changes a little easier.

Kennedy is especially proud of her musical accomplishments. Most recently, she auditioned at Concordia and earned first chair on Alto Saxophone, a wonderful achievement as she begins this next chapter! When she isn't busy with school or music, she enjoys painting.

Thank you, Kennedy, for sharing your memories and reminding us of the lasting importance of faith, friendship, and caring teachers. Your Immanuel family is proud of you, and we pray God's blessings over your studies, your music, and all that lies ahead!
