ISSUES IMPACTING WOMEN

Every election impacts women through policies that affect pay equity, child care, reproductive health, education, and economic opportunity.

KNOW WHERE YOUR CANDIDATES STAND ON THESE ISSUES!

CHILD CARE

Accessible and affordable high-quality child care is crucial for children's development, yet the current system fails both and disproportionately affects women's workforce participation, widening the gender wage gap and interfering with career progression.

Expand funding.

WAGE EQUITY

In 2026, women working full-time, year-round now earn $0.81 to every man's dollar, widening the gender pay gap slightly more from last year's $0.83 per dollar men earn. On a large scale, this costs women in the United States nearly 1.9 trillion each year.

Support closing the gap.

TDI

Temporary Disability Insurance gives you the right to partial wage replacement while you are unable to work. Women file nearly 70% of New York State short-term TDI claims, significantly outpacing men. In New York State, these benefits are capped at $170 per week.

Advocate for updating TDI and expanding paid leave.

ACCESS TO COMPREHENSIVE HEALTHCARE

Bodily autonomy is a right, not a privilege. New York provides care for nonviable pregnancies and threats to the pregnant person's health, yet systemic barriers continue to obstruct access for those who need it most. Closing that gap is a matter of justice.

Low income communities face the greatest barriers to healthcare.

Patients who must travel across state lines experience longer wait times and strain on already limited health systems.

Misinformation from certain clinics and protest activity in our region creates confusion and distress for those seeking care.

SAFE, ACCESSIBLE HEALTHCARE STARTS WITH THE CANDIDATES WE ELECT.
