OCTOBER 2023

From Your Pastor

Dear Friends,

As we navigate our busy fall schedules, it is a perfect time to ask, “How does God want me to spend my time? How can I make time for God, when the pace of my life goes into overdrive?”

The fall is always a challenging time as we seek to add balance to our busy days. We know intellectually that our body needs time to rest and re-charge, and our soul needs times to connect with God and hear God’s voice. God sometimes speaks in clear, unmistakable ways, but far more often God speaks to us in gentle whispers (1 Kings 19:11-12). If we don’t intentionally enter into God’s presence, we may never hear God’s leading.

And so, this October I encourage you to build time into your daily routine to rest in God’s presence. Don’t just pray, read the Bible, and come to worship, but “be still and know that I am God,” the psalmist pleads. And the prophet Isaiah reminds us, “in quietness and trust shall be your strength.”

God meets Elijah in the stillness of a cave, Abraham as he sits at the opening of his tent, Jacob as he waits alone at Peniel, and Joseph as he sits in jail. God meets the priest, Zechariah in the solitude of the sanctuary, Mary as she contemplates the angel’s words, and Joseph in a dream.

God meets Jesus in the isolation of the wilderness, and in the Garden of Gethsemane when everyone else is fast asleep. In the scriptures God shows up when we take time to dwell in God’s presence.

I don’t know a lot about wheels, other than the fact that they allow me to drive a car or ride a bicycle, but I do know that it is easier to start a wheel spinning than it is to stop it. Our cycle of activity is like that. It is easy to add one more thing onto our plate...and before we know it, the wheel revolves faster and faster.

I also know that the axle remains static, even when the wheel around it continues to spin. Even at 200 or 300 miles per hour, the axle doesn’t move. Like the axle, God is that Firm Foundation for us even when life spins out of control all around us.

So, whenever and however you quiet your body and soul—in those moments, God will find you, speak to you, and reassure you that you are not alone. And in that solitude, you will find ways to cut back on what is life-depleting in order to focus on what is life-giving. In quietness, you will find strength.

So slow down; be counter-cultural. And draw near to God during this beautiful fall season, so that God may draw near to you.

In Christ,

Jeanne

Rally Day was a huge success and a lot of fun! Thank you to everyone who helped out by setting up tables and chairs, bringing side dishes and desserts, and/or cleaning up afterwards. Thank you to Joe & Robbyn Marchesani, our Fellowship Commission co-chairs, for hosting the event and preparing our grilled chicken tenderloins as our main course. Everything was delicious! The children and youth enjoyed their first day of Sunday school and youth group, and after lunch, they sorted and packaged used crayons for the Crayon Initiative.

Music Ministry

Dear NSPC members,

Happy October! I was so happy to see so many of you for Rally Day and Confirmation Sunday. You are telling me our congregation is getting stronger and bigger. I love seeing familiar and unfamiliar faces in the pews!

The Choir is back in motion! As I always say, "Our door is open!!!" We meet on Sunday at 9AM before worship to rehearse and then sing during worship. We need voices! Any voice parts! Come join us!

October 1st, you will see Joann Mitchell and Ella Impriano accompanying the offertory, "O Praise the Lord" by Handel! Their flute parts are going to add so much to it! In the rest of October, you will see a praise team appearance and great pieces sung by the choir. Also, as you can see, Kevin has been away from the choir. He is now singing in a production in Knoxville. He is singing a role he likes - "Ford" - in Verdi Falstaff. We wish him all the luck!

Bells - we are in the progress of resuming Bell Choir in a certain capacity. If any one of you is interested in trying, please reach out!! The more the merrier!

Concert series - I am so happy and excited to announce that we will continue the second year of our concert series this year. The first concert will be on December 10th - Holiday Favorites. The perfect day since there is NO football game! Mark your calendar, invite your friends / families! Let's pack the sanctuary! The rest of the season will happen in 2024, I have planned some great musicians in the area and they are ready to go!

See you on Sundays!
~Ting Ting
Director of Music

News for: Youth and Family Ministries at NSPC

A Note from Meg: There is no doubt as I sit to write this: fall is definitely in the air! After a long summer, it feels nice to be getting back into new and old routines alike!

Youth group has met twice during worship and already, we are building out our year. We have discussed retreats as a group, planned some fall activities, and picked our fall Bible studies! The youth definitely have some great ideas about how they want to spend their time together and their enthusiasm is contagious!

Kids' Group had their first meeting and we are excited for a fall of talking about friendship and learning some "Bible Basics!" Our First Friends meet next week!

In October, we are hosting our annual Trunk or Treat event! Personally, I adore this inter-generational event that celebrates our community, as well as invites new friends in to see our church. There will be sign-ups coming this week (already!) and we cannot wait for this event to be another example of our church coming together to play!

God is good!

--Meg

Lighthouse Landing Sunday School has been busy and happy here at NSPC! Our kids fell right back into the routine of going to see Miss Paige and Mr. Brad!

If you have already received a Bible, make sure you are bringing it to Sunday School! Your Bible is meant to be opened and used! Beginning in October, Meg will start a marble jar for the number of Bibles that are brought to church on Sunday. When our 3rd through 5th graders fill the marble jar, Kid's Group will have a party to celebrate.

During the month of October, Lighthouse Landing's Sunday School curriculum teaches some of the stories of Genesis and Exodus! Here is our schedule:

October 1st: Abraham and Sarah (Genesis 17:1-7, 15-16; 18:1-15; 21:1-7)

These stories can lend themselves to some good conversations! If you want to start the conversation at home, consider look at these books in our lending library in the social hall

Mission News

Thank you to Grant Snyder, Cindy and Kevin Lemaster, Nancy Kermon, Joe Kasuska, Laurie and Doug Lynch, and Rich Digby for doing the Wawa pick up in September.

Food Bank Update:

Within the last year there have been some changes in the Food Bank donations as you know. We just want to make sure that everyone knows that food donations from NSPC families and WAWA are picked up and delivered weekly by Rev. Nancy Holt to Food Banks in Upper Darby area. St Mark's Food Pantry was closed for a period of time and then reopened with new structure. The system we formed at NSPC was successful and fit the hours of our volunteers. Food donated goes to Delaware County residents as St. Marks did. If any of our youth would like to organize a food drive NSPC can definitely be a drop off location and follow the plan we successfully put in place. Feel free to contact Sue Bechtold if any projects are planned: suebechtold1@gmail.com

Mission Friends: NSPC has not been on vacation with mission needs. We thought we might remind you of all the NSPC Mission Projects in the event you would like to donate to any of the current needs:

Food: October might be the month for us to FALL into a habit of bringing nonperishable foods for the local food banks. Please try to donate items and place them in the baskets at the top of the ramp. Thank you in advance from those in need.

Print Cartridges: These are recycled to Staples for credit to be used by the office.

Cradles to Crayons: Items for children: clothes, books, baby supplies all may be donated.

Gemma: School Supplies are always welcome at Gemma Services.

Baskets are needed from time to time for different projects. If you have any, please recycle to NSPC and do not toss.

Office Copy Paper: If you ever see copy paper at a great price, feel free to donate to the office.

Flip Tops: Flip Tops used on soda cans, etc. are donated to the Ronald McDonald House. They are then recycled, and the money is used towards utility bills. A drop-off is probably needed for the current donations at NSPC. If anyone goes to Chestnut St., Philadelphia near UPenn or Drexel and would volunteer to drop them off, it would be appreciated. Parking is usually not available so a driver and volunteer are needed. Let me know and I will package them.

~Sue Bechtold 484-832-8984

Checks are always accepted for any mission. Mark the designated mission in the memo of your check. Mission Items can be dropped off at the top of the ramp in the Gathering Space in the marked baskets or containers. Thank you.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING NEEDS TO START FOR OUR MISSIONS---

Sorry to be publishing the Christmas rush this early but the Missions for NSPC need to be complete in Nov. This announcement gives you a full 2 months to get started.

Gemma Services--

You will notice that Gemma Services provides a "suggestion list" (included in the Newsletter on page 10). If you are shopping and any of these items might be available, feel free to donate in the box at the top of the ramp. New and unwrapped is requested. Delivery of our NSPC donations will take place the week after Thanksgiving. You are always most generous and hopefully will help with this project. Gemma provides gifts for about 50 young children who live on the grounds in Plymouth Meeting. They also provide gifts to many children in their Foster Care program. Any questions can be asked of Sue Bechtold or Ginny Berman.

GIFT CARDS--

We are asking for gift cards to Walmart, Amazon or Target to provide for the Missions who prefer the cards in place of gifts. If you can provide any please give it to Heather in the office, Sue or Ginny. Thanks.

On March 10, 2024, NSPC will be participating in our 7th Rise Against Hunger meal packaging event. If you recall, we have already packaged and donated a combined total of over 120,000 meals at our previous six RAH events. Our goal is to package an additional 20,000 meals at our next event.

Behind the scenes, a committee works towards this day with publicity, communication with corporate RAH, refreshments for the 10th and FUNDRAISING.

New Rise Against Hunger Committee Forming...Volunteers Needed

As the money required to sponsor a Rise Against Hunger event is not a budgeted item, we need help with the fundraising in order to raise enough money to purchase the supplies from Corporate RAH. Brainstorming some quick and easy ideas is currently taking place and we would like to open this opportunity to others at NSPC. We welcome new ideas and support. (NO LONG MEETINGS We meet via zoom, email or texts.)

Please contact Lynne Corle - lcorme217@gmail.com or Sue Bechtold - suebechtold1@gmail.com. Thank you.
