

Overview

Saint Joseph Academy (SJA) is an academic faith community for young students in grades 7-12. We endeavor to form young men and women who will succeed in university studies, who know and love Jesus, and who actively participate in the worship and mission of the Church, including the Church's preferential option for the poor.

SJA is currently seeking a dynamic individual to join the academic team and serve as a High School English teacher. This individual will facilitate student learning and the assessment of that learning; supervise students, guaranteeing their safety and compliance with school rules and policies; participate in the ongoing development of the school's program of studies.

Qualifications

- An understanding of the mission of SJA and the value of Catholic secondary education
- Bachelor's Degree in social studies and/or composite from an accredited institution of higher education
- Valid Secondary Education Certification
- Must have strong written and oral communication skills
- At least 5 years of teaching experience preferred

Saint Joseph Academy offers a competitive compensation package. Priority will be given to application materials received by October 1, 2024. Position will remain open until filled.

TEACHER

The duties of a teacher, as a Christian educational leader, can be classified under three headings: (1) facilitating student learning and the assessment of that learning; (2) supervising students, guaranteeing their safety and compliance with school rules and policies, and (3) participating in the ongoing development of the school's program of studies.

1. Brings the message of Jesus through instruction, but more importantly by the witness of Christian living.
2. Understands and implements the school's Mission and Philosophy and all that is contained in the Employee Handbook and Student and Parent Handbook.
3. Understands the Employee Handbook to be an addendum to the faculty contract.
4. Strives to keep abreast of developments in his/her particular subject areas as well as research relative to teaching techniques and school programs.
5. Attends all scheduled meetings with a view toward cooperating with the ongoing development and improvement of the school.
6. Regularly participates in common planning with assigned teaching team(s) for the purposes of lesson planning, development of common assessments, and student data analysis to improve instruction.
7. Demonstrates belief in all students' potential; organizes classroom activities effectively; sets appropriate standards and is willing to listen.
8. Creates an environment where learning can take place and deals with ordinary discipline problems, referring only serious or chronic problems to the Dean of Students.
9. Never uses grades to punish students.
10. Maintains up-to-date assignments, home-work, and grades posted on the Internet.
11. Contacts parents promptly when student performance is less than satisfactory and responds to communication from parents within 48 hours.
12. Is available to students in his/her classroom before the start of Homeroom (7:50 AM) and after classes until 3:45 PM.
13. Establishes a regular time to be available to students who need additional help outside of class.
14. Utilizing pedagogical competency and expertise in his/her discipline, designs authentic assessments of Quarterly Course Outcomes and facilitates effective classroom experiences designed to optimize student performance on those assessments.
15. Makes full use of classroom time for instructional activity and learning through a variety of teaching methods and techniques and reflects these educational practices in daily lesson plans.
16. Shares with the administration the task of supervising students on campus; carries out the supervisory duties assigned by the Dean of Students or the Principal in order to maintain general good order throughout the day.
17. Loves and enjoys children; builds positive attitudes; demonstrates mercy and justice; fosters group cohesiveness.
