Embarkation Day Checklist

Make the most of your first day on board, from the port to sail-away.

Before you leave for the port

- [ ] Passports or ID and boarding pass in your carry-on
- [ ] Credit card for your onboard account
- [ ] Medications in your carry-on
- [ ] Swimsuit, sunscreen and a change of clothes
- [ ] Phone, charger and cruise app logged in
- [ ] Luggage tags on every checked bag

At the terminal

- [ ] Hand your checked bags to the porters
- [ ] Have documents ready for security and check-in
- [ ] Take your boarding photo (or skip it!)
- [ ] Keep your keycard somewhere safe

Once you're on board

- [ ] Grab lunch while you wait for your cabin
- [ ] Complete your safety drill (it's required)
- [ ] Check the app for the daily schedule
- [ ] Book any remaining dining, shows or spa
- [ ] Look for first-day spa and package deals
- [ ] Find your muster station and cabin
- [ ] Unpack once your luggage arrives
- [ ] Explore the ship before it gets busy
- [ ] Head up on deck for the sail-away party

GOOD TO KNOW

Checked bags can take until evening to reach your cabin, so anything you need that first afternoon belongs in your carry-on.
