

PR Card Renewal Document Checklist

IRCC will return your application if:

- your application is incomplete, or
- any supporting documents you need to include are missing.

Note: For any document that is not in English or French, you must include:

- an English or French translation,
- an affidavit from the person who completed the translation, and
- a certified copy of the original document.

Include the following items with your application

- ☐ Application for a Permanent Resident Card or Permanent Resident Travel Document (IMM 5444), fully completed and signed. Note: if you are applying online, you will complete this form digitally through the Permanent Resident (PR) Portal.
- ☐ Proof showing that you met the residency obligation in the past five (5) years immediately before the application or since becoming a PR if it has been less than 5 years. Please refer to Appendix A: Residency obligation of the instruction guide for a list of the documents required.
- ☐ Fees. Include a copy of the receipt showing the amount paid.
- ☐ This fully completed Document checklist (IMM 5644).

Additional forms/supporting documents, if they apply to you
