

"O COME LET US WORSHIP..."

Main Entrance Little Brown Church in Nashua, IA.

The Little Brown Church in the Vale Nashua, Iowa

The Iowa church was built before 1864.
A hymn about the church was written before the building even existed! Song was written by a music teacher, Dr. William S. Pitts, who traveled by stagecoach from WI, to visit his fiancé in Iowa. He wrote a poem "Church in the Wildwood" in 1857 and later set it to music. The song has been popularized by many musical artists.

"There's a church in the valley
by the wildwood,
No lovelier spot in the dale;
No place is so dear to my childhood,
As the little brown church in the vale."
Refrain:
"Come to the church in the wildwood, Oh, come to the church in the dale
No spot is so dear to my childhood,
As the little brown church in the vale."

"How sweet on a clear,
Sabbath morning,
To list to the clear ringing bell;
Its tones so sweetly are calling,
Oh, come to the church in the vale."

Many have heeded the call to come worship at the little brown church in
