Pray to God each evening. In your night prayers express your sorrow for sins or offenses of the day. Do this in your own words, or by praying an act of contrition. But also remember to thank God for the blessings of the day.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION — “Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb...” ISAIAH 49:5

God have given each of us different gifts. In order for God's plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do, and I have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Don't let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and become the saint that God is calling you to be.

January 22nd — A Day of Fasting and Prayer

On January 22, 1973, the United States Supreme Court issued an infamous decision in the case of Roe v. Wade. That decision has allowed the killing of unborn children in our country through abortion to the rate of more than one million children each year. We should certainly be opposed to this decision and to abortion. We should do all that we can to protect the lives of unborn children.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has designated January 22nd as a day of special focus for U.S. Catholics. The bishops stated that “in all the diocese of the United States of American, January 22nd should be observed as a particular day of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion, and of prayer for the restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life.”

The type of penance is up to you. You might consider abstaining from meat on that day, or you might go without desserts or snacks. The praying of the Rosary would be a good prayer to offer as well. Please offer your prayers and penances in atonement for past disregard to life and so that the lives on unborn children might be protected in the future.

St. Agnes

Much of Agnes' story comes down to use in the form of legend, but it is a fact that she was a martyr in the early fourth century. She has always been a popular saint because St. Ambrose and other well-known early Church saints have written about her.

Agnes was a beautiful young girl who belonged to a wealthy Roman family. She loved God very much and wanted to give her heart only to him. She chose Jesus as her spouse and would not marry anyone else. Because Agnes was rich and beautiful, many young Roman noblemen wanted to marry her. But she answered them all by saying, “I already have a husband in heaven—Jesus.” The young men became angry and reported Agnes to the governor, accusing her of being a Christian. This was in the year 304, when Christians were being put to death by order of the emperor Diocletian.

Even though Agnes was only thirteen years old, she faced the governor bravely. She would not turn away from God. She would not burn incense to the idols. She wasn't even afraid when the governor threatened to have her tortured. This made the governor so angry that he sent Agnes to the house of some evil women, so that they could lead her to sin. But Agnes remained pure and holy, trusting in Jesus, who made her strong.

When Agnes was brought back to the governor, he ordered her to be beheaded. Agnes bowed her head before the executioner. She felt happy to give her life for Jesus, and she looked forward to being with him soon in heaven. In one stroke, the executioner cut off Agnes' head. She is buried in a cemetery named after her. In 354, Emperor Constantine's daughter built a large church there and had Agnes' body placed under the later. St Agnes' symbol is the lamb.

Agnes made heroic decisions and stuck to them. She could do this because she made Jesus the center of her life. Her love for Jesus gave her strength she needed to be true to her Christian faith. We can as St. Agnes for her courage and love for Jesus. (from Daughters of St. Paul)
