WELCOME TO ST. AGNES

Please know that, whoever you are and from wherever you have come, you are welcome in God's house. May every heart be warmed by God's presence.

ALL SOULS DAY

November 2nd is All Souls Day, a day the Church encourages us to remember our deceased loved ones in a special way. There is an "All Souls envelope" in your packet of church envelopes. This is not for your regular church donation.

The All Souls envelope provides space to write the names of your deceased family and friends. If there is not enough room on the envelope for all the names you would like remembered at the Masses, just insert a sheet of paper inside the envelope with any additional names. You may put an offering in the envelope, but you do not have to put anything inside.

Drop the envelope in the collection basket in the next several weeks or return them to the Rectory or Parish Office. The envelopes will be placed at the altar in Church and remain there during the entire month of November.

On All Souls Day, celebrated on a Sunday this year—November 2nd—all the Sunday/weekend Masses will be offered for the names listed on the envelopes.

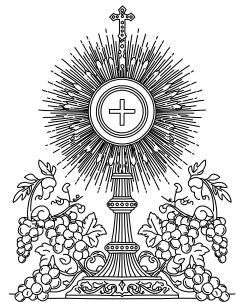

Also, a special Mass will be offered for "All Souls"—our loved ones—each week during November. In the following months, from December to next October, at least one Mass will be offered for "All Souls" each month. If you do not have an All Souls envelope, there will be additional ones in the back vestibule of the Church.

PRAYERFUL REMEMBRANCE — Beginning All Souls Day, November 2nd, we will put the "Book of Prayerful Remembrance" in front of the church. This book contains death notices of parishioners who have died since All Saints Day 2004. You might take the time to look through the book and remember the people listed and their families in your prayers. After the book is in the front of the church for a few weeks it will be returned to the back vestibule.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION — Each Thursday the Blessed Sacrament is placed on the altar of St. Agnes church following the 8:15 a.m. Mass. For 12 hours, the Blessed Sacrament is on the altar, displayed in the monstrance, while people come for prayer and spiritual reading. We are able to have Eucharistic Adoration on Thursdays because certain individuals commit themselves to being in church at certain times. The Blessed Sacrament is not supposed to be on the altar without anyone in church. We are grateful to all who have committed themselves to being in church at a certain time, thus making Adoration possible. Some people who have made these commitments have been doing so for many years. The visits to church on Thursdays for prayer before the Blessed Sacrament are a source of many blessings--blessings for those who come at a designated time each week; blessings for other parishioners and non-parishioners who come and go at times of their own choosing, whether for a visit of a few minutes, or a longer visit; blessings for all the parishioners of St. Agnes, and the universal Church, who all benefit from a prayerful Church, especially from prayer before the Blessed Sacrament.

Thank you for all who spend time in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament.

PSR NEWS —There will be an informational meeting on November 2nd for all 2nd Grade parents whose children are making their 1st Reconciliation. The meeting will be held in the 2nd Grade Classroom during PSR.

1st Reconciliation will be held Saturday, November 8th at 10:30 a.m.

Confirmation will be held at St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception (Wooster) on Saturday, November 8th at the 5:00 p.m Mass.
