

Welcome to a little March Madness at the winery! The past few months have been a whirlwind, with Sarah and Todd traveling all over the country. Somewhere between flights, wine events and tastings, Sarah's computer decided it was time to retire—making for a few “character-building” weeks of recovery and reset.

The bright side? A brand-new computer and some exciting news to share! We're honored to have been recognized in the Napa Valley Life Best of Napa 2026 awards: Anderson's Conn Valley was named Best Hidden Gem, Todd earned Best Winemaker, and we proudly placed 3rd for Best Signature Winery, a new category for this year. None of this would be possible without all of you... thank you so much for your support and votes!

Vineyard & Winery Work

Vineyard & Winery News... We are finally drying out... so Todd is busy catching up with tractor work, as he likes to mulch up all the prunings. The guys are still pruning and projected to be finished by the end of this month - then they'll begin irrigation repair and refinement so when the vineyard awakens, everything will be in perfect order.

Team News... Juan has been busy with monthly chores in the cellar and Raymond continues to work hard in the vineyard. Todd is happy to be back home and is tasting through the cellar in between tractor work, and starting to plan with George on next steps for the vineyard's health. Winter Club shipped and all has gone quite well; Sarah has been busy keeping Todd focused and is starting to plan the wines for our upcoming Spring Clubs... below is a teaser - just bottled, really gorgeous, and crafted for our Club Family!

(New Release... coming soon for Club Members only!)

Notes from Sarah & Todd

Sarah & Todd... What a whirlwind these past few months have been! Since October, we don't think we've been home for more than four days at a stretch — and we've loved (almost) every minute of it.

We kicked things off in Boston for a wonderful Member Pop-Up Party, Harriet's beautiful baby shower, and precious time with the kids. Being surrounded by Harriet's family and celebrating a little one who is due any day now filled our hearts in the best way. We are officially on grandbaby watch!

From there, it was off to Malibu for another fantastic Member gathering — and even more special, the wedding of a dear friend's son. There is something so meaningful about witnessing the next generation step into their future.

No sooner had we landed back in Napa than Sarah's brother and his girlfriend arrived to enjoy a few days of wine country fun. We squeezed in as much family time as possible before heading to Taos, New Mexico. Taos greeted us with stunning skies... and a few challenges. We both started off under the weather, and within hours Sarah's computer decided to completely give up on life (with absolutely nowhere nearby to rescue it!)... hence, no February Newsletter. Thankfully, good friends, special wine dinners, and a few sunny ski days made everything better. Sarah declared it her perfect kind of skiing — warm, sunny, and beautiful.

We returned home for exactly one day before heading to Bakersfield to celebrate Sarah's mom's 80th birthday surrounded by family — such a meaningful milestone and a beautiful reminder of what truly matters.

And then it was straight on to Cape Coral, Florida for work and another lively Member Pop-Up Party. We also carved out time with Todd's Aunt Mary and Uncle Robert. Evenings were spent playing countless rounds of smear and soaking up that glorious warm weather — so much laughter and so much fun.

All of our kids have been navigating the crazy storms this season as well — Julia back at Creighton University in Omaha, Noah in New York, and of course, Harriet and Jordan in Boston. We even held all our Winter Club shipments to Boston because of the massive snowstorms — safety first, wine second!

This week marks the first time we've been home for more than a few days in several months... and we are soaking it up. But not for long! Our bags are packed and ready by the door because Harriet and Jordan's baby could arrive at any moment. We are beyond excited (and maybe just a little giddy) to become grandparents and head back to Boston at a moment's notice.

It's been a season full of travel, celebration, family, friends, wine, and milestones — and we are feeling incredibly grateful for all of it.

Happy St. Patrick's Day!

🍀 No Green Beer Required 🍀

This St. Patrick's Day, we'll be skipping the green beer and reaching for something far more magical — a bold Napa Valley red from Anderson's Conn Valley.

If you're planning a festive dinner, our Cabernets pair beautifully with hearty classics (yes, even corned beef). And with Spring Club wines soon making their way to you, there's even more to look forward to in the weeks ahead.

But that's not all... 🙄

We have a little friendly competition brewing of our own. Keep an eye on your inbox — our March Madness Sale is coming soon, and let's just say a few favorite bottles may be advancing to a very special round of pricing.

We're incredibly grateful to have you as part of our winery family. Your support allows us to keep doing what we love — farming thoughtfully, crafting intentionally, and sharing it all with you.

May your day be filled with laughter, good company, a bit of Irish luck, and a glass worth savoring!

Sláinte! 🍷 🍀

Happy St. Patrick's Day from our family and team to all of you!

Cheers and blessings,

Todd, Sarah, Michael, Juan and Raymond
