Thank you from Fr. Devine...

I want to thank everyone who contributed to last week's Catholic Charities collection in support of the recovery efforts following the Texas floods. We collected $6,826 which, once again, is an example of your generosity, willingness and desire to help those in need. A middle school child who had previously been given $50 told me that he gave the $50 to the collection because he saw the need and wanted to help others.

I also want to thank Sean McKeown, our summer seminarian, for all that he did to support individuals, ministries and projects over the past 8 weeks. Sean was engaging and sought every opportunity to learn not only from Fr. Rodrigo and me, but from you. He returns to the seminary with a much better understanding of the expectations and joys of priesthood. - Fr. Devine

Dear Friends,

It has been my great honor and privilege to spend time with all of you this past summer at St. Thomas Aquinas Parish. From day one, everyone here has been so warm and welcoming.

It was clear that this is a flourishing and vibrant parish, but I didn't know the reason behind it. What I have realized is that this parish is doing so well because it has a community that puts effort into making it this way. There are over 40 ministries here. And one of the things that impresses me the most is that each of these ministries is not led by a priest but by a parishioner. This exemplifies the Church's call for the laity to take an active role in the life of the Church. Of course, this is only possible when you have great priests like Fr. Bill and Fr. Rodrigo. They have taught me so much of what it is to be a good servant of the Lord. Some of my favorite highlights were the prison ministry, visiting the state hospital, the Canobie Lake Park trip, the Faith on Fire gatherings, and many of the other groups I was able to attend. Thank you for helping me in my formation. God bless you all!

- Sean McKeown, Seminarian

CATHOLIC HEART WORKCAMP MISSION TRIP - WHAT A GREAT WEEK!

What an absolutely amazing week on our mission trip! This was my sixth year leading, and every single time, God works in ways that leave me in awe. Watching teens grow in their faith, serve with joyful hearts, and support one another reminds me why I keep coming back year after year. My heart is on fire for Jesus, and I can't wait to see where He calls us next year. These trips are more than just service - they are a chance to live the Gospel, build lifelong friendships, and experience the power of prayer in the most beautiful ways.

This year, I was blessed to serve at the Town of Niagara YWCA in a domestic violence temporary housing program. I had the privilege of meeting incredible women - both staff and survivors - who inspired me with their courage. It was humbling to help create a home they could feel proud of as they recover from such trauma. I also got to meet several of the children there, whose resilience was nothing short of remarkable.

One of the most moving moments of the trip came on our final day, when the group gathered around and prayed over me. It was such a humbling and powerful experience that it brought me to tears. It is in moments like these that I feel God's love so strongly at work.

Looking ahead: Keep an eye on the St. Thomas Aquinas bulletin for information about next year's mission trip. Registration will begin at the end of August, and Catholic Heart Workcamp registration opens the first week of September, so all applications and deposits will need to be in right after Labor Day. We don't know where we'll be headed yet, but it promises to be another amazing event!

In the meantime, we are also planning local service opportunities throughout the year. Please join our monthly youth group meetings. Dates for the entire year will be posted in August. We can't wait to serve alongside you! For more information, please reach out to me at JenRosher@comcast.net.

- Jen Rosher, Coordinator
