Thank you!

We would like to thank the Knights of Columbus as well as an individual parishioner for their donations of two new gold chalices, which will be used to enable parishioners to receive the Precious Blood.

In addition, we would like to thank the Knights of Columbus and St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Women's Club for their donations to the block party, which are covering the costs of the DJ and some other event activities.

This is a busy time of year as vacations come to an end, students return to college or school, and parish activities ramp up. As you'll read in this week's bulletin, there are A LOT of activities that are meant to celebrate and grow our faith, to support others, and to build and strengthen our community.

This week's bulletin in particular showcases the experience that many of our high school students and their chaperones had during last month's Mission Trip. I think you will find their testimonials inspiring and hopeful. - Fr. Devine

August 31 ~ Twenty-second Sunday of Ordinary Time

Today's readings highlight the importance of the virtue of humility. In the first reading we hear, "Conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts." In the Gospel parable, we hear Jesus say, "everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Humility is not about weakness. Rather, humility is freedom from pride and arrogance, a quality which is rare in our world. A humble person recognizes that all of life and all that we possess is a gift from God. This week, pray for the grace to eliminate any conceit or feelings of self-importance so as to grow in humility and truth.

Here are some testimonials from some students and chaperones who attended this year's Mission Trip:

This trip was my second year with CHWC and it was even better than last year! Working with the community and being God's hands on earth was so rewarding and really helped me grow in my faith. - Brooke Smith

This was my 4th mission trip and, by far, one of the best ones. I really got to connect to people I didn't really know that well. During Adoration, I could feel God speaking to me in a way I can't describe. I could feel my faith grow deeper and my connection to God grow stronger - Tyler Holland

This has been my second mission trip now! All I can say is how grateful I am that I was able to have this opportunity again! This time not only did I find a great group of people to hang out with from my parish, but I also made connections with my group and residents of Niagara. This trip is definitely one to remember and is my favorite week of every year. As soon as I leave, I look forward to the next one! Thank you to everyone who made this an opportunity for me and I hope more people consider taking this wonderful opportunity! - Maggie Farrell

As this being my first mission trip, leading up to the trip I was very nervous and overthinking about my upcoming experience. However, as soon as I met my new friends and formed a group, I felt comfortable. When I got to the camp and work sites, I was learning, seeing, feeling new things that are hard to explain to someone that has never been on a mission trip before. This trip was truly eye-opening and showed me how to become more connected to God. I am forever grateful for this opportunity and will remember it always! - Sophie Sena

This year was so amazing. This was my second time and it just keeps getting better. This year, I made many new connections and God gave me the strength to work outside. I did yard work in many empty lots, which is something I would never have thought of doing, but I'm so grateful I got this experience. - Cami Milka

This was my 3rd year going on this trip. This time, I feel like I connected on another level with my faith like I never had before. During 4 corners, I finally told my friends something that I never really told anyone and everyone that I told was so understanding and made me feel welcome. Also, during Adoration, I really did feel God speaking to me with every song that was sung. I always got chills and that was my sign that God is listening to me. Overall, this trip was by far the best one I have ever done and I will be happy to come on it next year. - Alex Taccini

This was my second CHWC, and once again it was amazing. My group worked with Habitat for Humanity at two homes, completing several projects. My favorite part of the week was being able to spend time with the teens and adults from our parish. They are such an inspiration to me and my faith. They are striving to follow Jesus in all that they do. I am happy to be walking on that journey with them. A special thank you to Mrs. Rosher for organizing and running this trip. A huge thank you to all of those from our Parish that supported us by their prayers, encouragement, or finances. - Steven Riley

I loved this trip. I loved the experience, helping others, creating new memories, and deepening our faith. The work we did definitely made an impact on our residents and their neighbors. This mission trip was an unforgettable experience and I'm looking forward to next year's trip! - Aubrey Smith

Our mission trip to Niagara Falls was an unforgettable journey filled with purpose, connection, and faith. As we served the community and shared kindness, I felt a deep sense of gratitude for the opportunity to be a part of something so meaningful. This trip not only allowed us to make a positive impact on others, but it also strengthened our bonds and deepened our own faith. I'm incredibly thankful for the experiences we shared, the people we met, and the way this mission opened my heart. A special thank you to Jen for all her hard work. You are amazing! - Stacey Smith

This was my first time at CHWC, and it was an amazing experience! Serving those in need and sharing God's love brought a sense of purpose I'll never forget. It was a powerful reminder of how meaningful life becomes when we live for others. - Avery Raymond

CHWC was a truly amazing experience. Returning to the camp for the fourth time reminded me of the sheer love and sense of community displayed between people from completely different parts of the country. Being able to give to the community every year while strengthening my faith is the reason why I come back every single time. It was truly an unforgettable experience - Jacob Howard

This was my fourth year on the trip and I am very happy I decided to come. I was unsure because some of my friends didn't come. I ended up being able to make a better connection with God. Thank you, Mrs. Rosher, for giving us this opportunity and taking care of us all. - Anonymous

This is my fourth mission trip, and it helped me to strengthen my relationship with God and to get to know new people with the same faith goals. Thank you for allowing me to come. - Jacob Stull

It is an honor to be part of this amazing journey. To share the glory of God as teens & chaperones spread God's love through Mass, prayer, and hard work is a blessing beyond measure! - Colleen Lothrop

Being my fourth mission trip now to Niagara Falls, New York, I've been more deeply involved in my faith than previous mission trips. I enjoyed my week, working two days at a local couple's home doing yard work and painting their front and back decks. For the last two days, we built a wall in a homeless shelter for a storage area. We also helped prepare lunch for them. I learned about the people living there and made connections with them. I saw the joy on their faces when the wall was up. I always love adoration and four corners. I can't wait for next year and the years to come. - Owen Lynch

This week was truly incredible. From dancing and singing to praying for one another, I honestly think this was the best mission trip I've ever been on. Before going, my faith life was at its lowest, and I felt like I had been slowly drifting away from God. During the program, we did something called "4 Corners," where we were able to pray in whatever way felt right, whether it was through writing, praying the rosary, lighting a candle, placing prayer intentions on a cross, going to confession, or talking with adults for spiritual guidance. While praying the rosary, a thought came to me. I told God, "If you want me to do this," (something I was thinking about doing) "please show me a monarch butterfly," because I've always loved butterflies. Two days later, when we went to Six Flags, Mrs. Rosher pointed out a butterfly, and I got to hold it in my hand. That's when I remembered what I had asked God. Sometimes I struggle to hear God clearly because my mind tends to wander, so I look for signs in things I love in nature like monarch butterflies or rainbows that I don't see too often. This has encouraged me to pray more. I'm so grateful for this youth group. - Grace Camy

It was incredible to witness the teens give their all to God in Adoration, Four Corners, and daily Mass. They worshipped hard in order to work hard. They completely let themselves go in the dances and games, which was a lesson for me to loosen up. One of the best parts of the day was free time, when almost everyone was either outside on the grass playing yard games or in Gallagher Hall playing card games. I am so blessed and grateful to have been a part of this experience. The high-schooler in me resurfaced, and I had so much fun with our great group. Not many seminarians get this experience, and I will hold it close to my heart throughout my formation and, God willing, priesthood.

- Patrick Earley, Seminarian

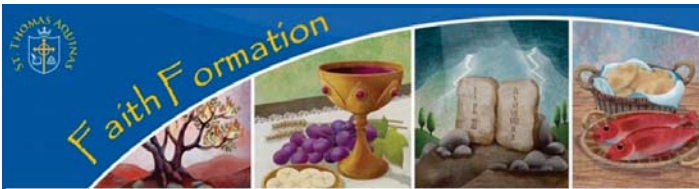

I have just completed my 4th mission trip with Catholic Heart Work Camp and with St. Thomas. This year was extra special because my whole family attended. We were in a work group together and served two lovely residents. We spent quality time together while serving the community. I have made new friendships which I will cherish close to my heart. My faith in God has grown so much and I hope to take that back home and have it grow even more. Thank you so much for this amazing opportunity and I hope to be back next year.

- Abigail Holland

I had a great time on the mission trip. It helped me get closer to God and grow in my faith. I was especially excited to participate in the community service part of the trip and it was better than I thought. It is definitely something I would want to do again.

- Patrick Farrell
