MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR!

On this holy night/day, we look again to the manger of Bethlehem. We come with familiar carols, but also with heavy and hopeful hearts. Our nation and our world are marked by conflict, uncertainty, division, and fear. Yet, it is precisely into such a world that God chose to come.

“The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.” (Isaiah 9:1) Christmas proclaims that God does not remain distant from human suffering. He enters it. The Child laid in a manger is Emmanuel - God with us. Not God above the struggle, not God removed from history, but a loving God born into poverty, vulnerability, and danger.

Mary and Joseph knew fear and displacement. They fled violence and injustice. The shepherds, like so many today, lived on the margins. From the very beginning, the story of Christmas speaks directly to our own time. When we look at war, political tension, economic anxiety, racial profiling, and the erosion of trust among neighbors and nations, Christmas reminds us that God’s answer is not despair, but PRESENCE.

The birth of Christ reveals that hope is not naïve optimism. Christian hope is stronger. It trusts that God is at work even when things seem so dark. The light shining from the manger does not eliminate darkness all at once, but is overcoming it - quietly, faithfully, and definitively.

Christmas calls us back to what truly builds a society: reverence for human life, care for the poor and forgotten, honesty and integrity in leadership, and a commitment to peace. The Prince of Peace is born not with power or force, but with humility and love. Jesus’ way challenges every form of violence, hatred, and indifference - beginning in our own hearts.

For our world, Christmas invites us to believe that reconciliation is possible. The angels’ song still echoes: “Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests.” Peace begins when we believe in and follow Jesus Christ - when we choose mercy over judgment, charity over self-interest, and courage over fear.

As we celebrate this Christmas, look to the manger and entrust to Jesus all that troubles us; our families, our nation, our leaders, and all who suffer across the world. May we be ready to carry the light of Christ into places of darkness through our acts of faith, hope, and love.

On behalf of Fr. Rodrigo, the parish staff, and myself, may this Christmas Season and New Year help us to better understand and appreciate God’s love for us revealed in Jesus Christ.

- Fr. Devine

CLERGY TRUST COLLECTION AT CHRISTMAS MASSES

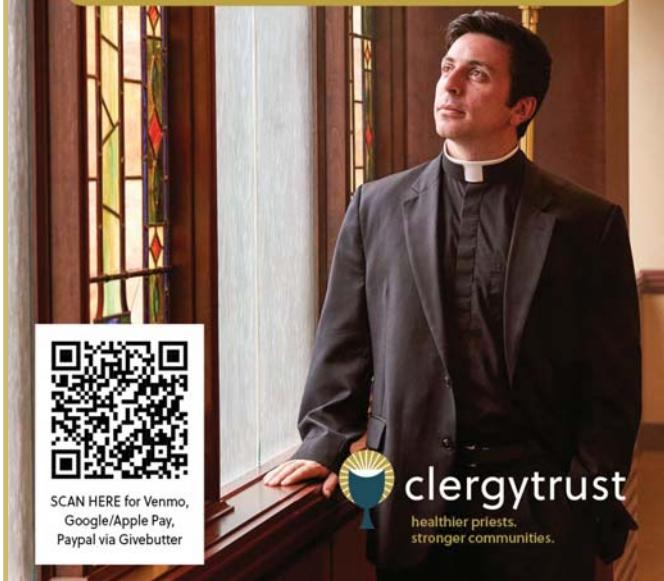

At all our Christmas Masses, the only collection taken will be to support the retirement, medical and financial needs of priests in good standing throughout the Archdiocese of Boston. On behalf of all of our priests, thank you for your generosity. For more information, visit www.clergytrust.org. Clergy Trust is an independently managed trust that provides care and support for the health, well-being, and retirement needs of all active and senior diocesan priests in good standing across the Archdiocese of Boston.

For priests, bringing the presence of Christ to others is a daily calling that extends far beyond the walls of the Church, and impacts the lives of people of all faiths and backgrounds throughout the community. Our priests are so committed to serving others that it can be very easy for them to forget that they must take care of themselves, too. That is why Clergy Trust is dedicated to the mission of ensuring our priests receive the care and support they need to stay healthy. By supporting Clergy Trust, you are supporting our dedicated priests who do so much for us and our communities.
