GO TELL IT ON THE MOUNTAIN!

Because I'm not on Facebook, many express their concerns, support, advice and recommendations in email. I want to share with you an email that I received this week from a parishioner. I share it because it's very honest and positive. He, like many, are growing in the understanding of their faith and, as a result, their willingness to express it more openly and often. - Fr. Devine

I wanted to share something with you that I posted on Facebook last week. While I certainly do not need to be cited, I would have no problem being identified. That is exactly what I am talking about. No need to be anonymous... anymore. Go tell it on the mountain! I am Catholic and proud of it. I believe in God and don't care who knows it. I like to think that if I were in the time of Jesus and subject to stoning or worse, I would feel and act the same way. Thankfully we have it a lot easier than they did!

For so many of us, Mass and spirituality in general is a very private and sometimes solemn experience. Why?

Why private? I have been guilty of it myself. There were times that I have felt weird about sharing my experience, to the point of even telling someone once I was going shopping when I was going to Mass. Embarrassed isn't the right word. Did I feel they would think I wasn't cool? I don't know. Why did I care? But, certainly, not the case anymore. I am very happy to share my experience!

And why solemn? I guess it has a lot to do with the celebrant, but for me, and for most at St. Thomas, it is a celebration and should be!

So... on the actual day of Epiphany, I wanted to share with you a feeling I had. Epiphany? I don't know, but I like it. My recent feelings of joy from increased spirituality seem to have guided me to share it with others instead of hiding it. Not preach, but share. If they are not interested, I move on. But most are! Even sharing that they too feel the same way and have been "hiding" it. Others say, "Yeah, I gotta get back to Mass." If I can facilitate one of them to do so, I would be very happy.

So here is the Facebook post...

Anyone want to go to church? Many of you know that I go and I see some of you there!.... And please, I am well aware of the issues. It is easy to criticize and poke holes, it is hard to have faith. This is not a recruiting mission, or I'm more Holy than you or preaching. Just a suggestion. I'm not saying you "should" or even telling you which church to go to. Many of you say "yeah I gotta go back". All I am saying is if you are on the fence or just curious, check it out... I go Sundays to St. Thomas Aquinas at 9:00 AM. BTW, if you chose that Mass, feel free to sit with me but I sing - loudly and badly - lol!

- Mike C., parishioner

FAITH FORMATION UPDATE

CONFIRMATION

Last Sunday's topic was the sacraments, and we were blessed to welcome Deacon Joe McGinley, a permanent deacon for the Diocese of Fall River. Deacon McGinley teaches theology at Bishop Feehan High School and serves as the parish deacon at St. Ann's in Raynham. He explained that the word sacrament comes from the Latin sacrare, meaning "to make holy," and that what was lost through Original Sin is restored through the sacraments. Through their words and actions, the sacraments convey grace. They were instituted by Christ Himself. During their small-group classroom sessions, students searched the Bible to find passages that refer to the institution of each sacrament. Deacon McGinley emphasized that the sacraments offer us an encounter with Christ and allow us to share in His divine life. While the sacraments have the power to transform us, this transformation depends on our openness to receive them. He used the familiar phrase, "You are what you eat." When we are truly receptive to the Eucharist, we become more Christ-like. Our goal is to receive Christ worthily in the Eucharist, to grow in His likeness, and transform the world around us.

FIRST RECONCILIATION PARENT NIGHT

Last Tuesday night, Fr. Bill met with Grade 2 parents to help them prepare their children for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. He began by asking why parents teach their children to say, "I'm sorry." Parents shared that expressing sorrow helps develop social skills, accountability, and relationships, and helps prevent repeated mistakes. Fr. Bill then asked why apologizing is difficult for children. Parents noted it is hard to apologize because of fear of disappointing others, fear of reactions, difficulty admitting wrongdoing, and not knowing how to apologize. He then asked parents the same question about themselves. They identified common reasons adults need to say they are sorry to their children, including losing patience, being judgmental, breaking promises, not listening, overreacting, and harmful words. Parents emphasized that adult apologies are important to acknowledge mistakes, repair relationships, model humility, show care, and practice forgiveness. Then, Fr. Bill asked parents to share things adults need to apologize to God for. They responded with things such as not praying, missing Mass, receiving Communion unworthily, using God's name in vain, neglecting the needy, and placing other priorities before God, and that apologizing to God can be difficult due to embarrassment, denial, lack of readiness to change, ignorance, or presuming they are already forgiven. Fr. Bill reminded parents that Jesus gave us the Sacrament of Reconciliation as a way to say, "I'm sorry." God wants to hear us say "I'm sorry," as sin separates us from who God created us to be. Above all, Reconciliation is about God's love and mercy.

As we begin the New Year, we are well into our 2025 Annual Appeal. Fr. Bill and I are amazed and humbled with the tremendous response to date.

As we have mentioned previously, the proceeds from the Annual Appeal help us make up for the short fall when our weekly operational expenses are greater than the weekly income or offertory collection. All of these expenses are critical to meet the needs of our constantly growing parish. None of these things could have been accomplished without the generosity of those who contributed to this year's Appeal.

It's not too late to give to the Annual Appeal!

For all who have given to the Annual Appeal... THANK YOU! If you have not yet made a contribution and would like to help support our parish and ministries we ask you to consider making a donation in the upcoming weeks.

There are several ways to contribute:

1. Via WeShare, at www.stthomasaquinas.com,
2. Send or bring your donation to the parish office (pledge cards are at the church/chapel entrances)
3. Scan this QR Code - OR -
4. Venmo: @stthomasaquinas-bridgewater.

Each year it is our hope to eclipse last year's total. We have been blessed most years achieving this, and this year is no different. Our expenses increase every year as we grow, so we pray and appeal to you, our parish family, to help us keep pace. Again, thank you to all you have donated or will donate to the Annual Appeal. May the Lord bless and guide our parish now and in the years to come. - Peter Vitagliano, Finance/Operations Officer
