Bulletin June 14, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

Jesus in the Gospel today is moved in his heart for the people who as the Gospel quotes Jesus were like sheep without a shepherd. He picks the twelve and sends them out to proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is at hand. He also tells them to pray that the Lord of the harvest will send more laborers out. Do you pray for vocations to priesthood and religious life? Do you pray for our seminarians? Do you pray for vocations to holy matrimony to form strong Christian families. Our witness to the world is important and with the grace of God and with blessings from above it may be powerful. May God send us laborers to assist in the vineyard. May vocations to religious life and priesthood increase in our diocese and throughout the Church. May young people accept the call to holy matrimony and live out their lives as devout Catholic Christians. May our world witness to the kingdom of God being at hand within our lives and within the life of the Church.

Peace,
Fr. Jeff

Condolences

Please pray for the Reed family at the passing of Kathy's sister Regina Bellitto on May 22, 2026. Prayers also for the Korte family at the passing of Dave Korte on June 5th 2026. Dave used to play guitar at 5:30pm Mass on Saturday nights. Finally, let us pray for Phyllis Tully mother of Michelle Hastings whose Memorial Mass was this past Saturday. May all their souls rest in peace.
