Dear Parishioners,

This past weekend we had a major snow storm and many were unable to make it to our services on Sunday. Many of the ones who did come on Sunday, thanked me for still having Mass. Seeing with the eyes of faith, we know that most everyone still attended. What do you mean? There were less than ten people at Mass and the collection amount was lower. Jesus said, "where two or three are gathered in my name, I am in their midst."

Jesus is present in the liturgy and where Jesus is the hosts of angels and saints also attend the liturgy as well. Yes, it is true, but we do not see them with our physical eyes, but with the eyes of faith we know that they are there. We assert our faith in the recitation of the Nicene Creed at the Sunday Liturgy. We "believe in all things visible and invisible". Yes, some of the invisible things that we believe in are angels, saints, the Kingdom of God made present to us in the Liturgy just to name a few. God, justice, love, virtue, truth, peace, and many other invisible things that God has created or eternally exist in and with God. We love to see the members of our parish and the local community at Mass. However, when we gather our focus is on God and his kingdom and the eternal realities that are present to us in the Liturgy. May the distractions, the weather, and all the other properties of the visible material world not make us unaware of the unseen realities that faith makes known to us! May God continue to bless our Parish and guide us in our lives to grow in love of Jesus Christ and His Church!

Peace,

Fr. Jeff
