Dear Parishioners,

We celebrate the Epiphany of Christ. The magi come to offer gifts. These first ones to come and adore and worship the newborn king and offer gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh were the ones that developed in the Christmas tradition the idea of exchanging gifts with our loved ones. Now, we sometimes get so wrapped up in the gift giving aspect of Christmas that we sometimes lose the emphasis on what we receive at Christmas in the birth of our newborn king. Jesus is the greatest gift that humanity has ever received. A perfect Savior and Lord was given to us. The magi brought gifts. What do we have to offer to the Lord today? What are we willing to give? It is always an important question for us to ponder. The more we are willing to offer the more growth that may be available to us in our spiritual life.

May the Lord accept our gifts and help to make them fruitful for the growth of God's kingdom.

Peace,

Fr. Jeff

Many Thanks

A special thanks to all for the many generous Christmas gifts given to me. Ten thousand thanks to everyone & the Knights of Columbus. Fr. Jeff
