REMINDER:

If you and your family have been attending Blessed Sacrament Parish, please consider registering as parishioners. As registered parishioners, we will be able to post your contributions throughout the year. We then can provide you with a letter at the end of the year stating the amount of your total giving, which you then can use for tax reporting purposes. We will also be able to track the sacraments you and your family members receive. If you are unsure if you are registered, please check with the parish office. And please remember, registering will allow us to serve you better.

Altar Society

The Altar Society is tasked with providing all the hosts and wine for all Masses, all year. We do this with the help of our members through their yearly dues of $15 per person and also through various fundraisers throughout the year. Some of those include bake sales, the sale of Advent items, Etc

Our annual renewal and recruitment is happening now. We'd love to have you join us! Please call the Church office for more information. 760-367-3343

Our new Priest Father Khan will start celebrating Mass with us starting July 1st. Father Cyriacus will be celebrating Mass with us for the month of June along with Saturday Confession.
