The superb Sealine T46 Motor Yacht provides an unmatched combination of aft-cabin cruising comforts and exhilarating performance. The teak-laid, full-width bathing platform, cockpit and flybridge signify the high standard specification of the T-series range, as do the stainless steel windows, portholes and fender strips. The layout of the deep, safe cockpit and imposing flybridge provides ample seating and sunbathing areas for entertaining and relaxing. Storage lockers in the flybridge house the cockpit table and canopy. The bathing platform has a shower, swim ladder, and a passerelle/dinghy crane.

Sealine T46

A large, curved sliding door leads to the saloon which offers custom reclining seating with additional seating opposite. The saloon also has a TV / DVD, an additional cocktail cabinet, and a separate saloon fridge. The lower helm offers excellent all-round visibility and the separate helm seats provide both comfort and easy access.

The comprehensive all-electric galley has a ceramic hob, microwave, fridge, and twin sinks set into a Corian worktop.

Dinette which will provide full, luxurious six-berth accommodation.

The forward double cabin has en suite toilet and shower.

The aft double master cabin has separate toilet and shower compartments, a dressing table, and features an access hatch to the bathing platform.

The cherry wood interior provides a soft, restful effect to complement the choice of fabrics or leather. Capable of speeds in excess of 30 knots, the T46 is a true, luxury performance motor yacht.
