Accommodation:

The cockpit has two living areas. In the middle is a six-seat sofa with a large folding oval table opposite the wetbar and helm, while aft is a sunpad that creates a large solarium on the sea over the tender garage.

Below deck, elegance and refined materials provide the perfect welcome. The leather sofa, hi-lo table, the elaborately worked cherry wood: a demonstration that little details can make a big difference adding style to the comfort and fully-equipped galley

A single glance is sufficient to grasp the promise of this full beam master cabin: pure relaxation with the spacious aspect with island double berth and plenty of storage.

In the bow, another spacious island double berth, with drawers and plenty of storage and private en-suite with vacu-flush toilet, sink, high level mirrored cupboards and rotating shower stall.

Day head with vacu-flush toilet, sink, high level mirrored cupboards and shower curtain.
