Resources Area

The resources area may be used as an alternative way to find compliance certificates. This is particularly useful if you want to find site-specific information rather than product-specific. It is accessed from Resources (top of all pages).

Check the Compliance box and enter a relevant search term, such as site location:

The results show all compliance related documents for the requested site:

The Resources area may also be used for multi-site searches for specific certifications or as an alternative route to finding product-specific compliance information:
