WELCOME

PRELUDE "Joseph Dearest, Joseph Mine" – Mark Hayes

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: We come today remembering the steadfast love of the Lord,

People: We praise the One who has acted on our behalf.

Leader: We recall all that God has done, according to His mercy and His compassion.

People: In our distress, God was distressed. In love and pity, God redeemed His people.

Leader: God lifted them up and carried them, not for a moment, but through all their days.

People: Come, let us worship the God whose love saves, whose presence remains, and whose mercy still carries us.

Morning Prayer

Gracious and faithful God, we give You thanks that in Your great Love You chose to draw near to us. You sent Your Son to share our humanity, to walk where we walk, to suffer where we suffer, and to lead us into salvation.

Jesus, our brother and our Savior, You are not ashamed to call us Your own.
You entered our weakness, faced temptation, and broke the power of fear and death. Because You suffered, You are able to help us when we struggle.

Because You know our lives from the inside, we trust You with our burdens, our doubts, and our hopes. As we continue in this Christmas season, help us remember that the child in the manger is the One who redeems, restores, and walks with us still. It is in this spirit that we pray together, Our Father...

12.28.25 Scripture

MATTHEW 2:13-23

The Escape to Egypt

¹³ Now after they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you, for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him.” ¹⁴ Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother by night, and went to Egypt ¹⁵ and remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet, “Out of Egypt I have called my son.”

The Massacre of the Infants

¹⁶ When Herod saw that he had been tricked by the magi, he was infuriated, and he sent and killed all the children in and around Bethlehem who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had learned from the Magi.

¹⁷ Then what had been spoken through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled:

¹⁸ “A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be consoled, because they are no more.”

The Return from Egypt

¹⁹ When Herod died, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said, ²⁰ “Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the child’s life are dead.” ²¹ Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel. ²² But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And after being warned in a dream, he went away to the district of Galilee. ²³ There he made his home in a town called Nazareth, so that what had been spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled, “He will be called a Nazarene.”
