Rhonda's Reflections

One day, a father came home tired from his job late in the evening, slumped into his chair and turned on the TV to watch the evening news. His five-year-old son came by and gave him a hug. The boy sat for a while and watched his father watching TV. Finally, he asked, "Daddy, can I ask a question? I was wondering how much money you make in an hour?" "Well," the father said impatiently, "it's really not important and you're probably too young to be asking questions like that, but if you need to know, I make $22.00 an hour." The boy ran up to his bedroom, and soon ran back with some dollar bills in his hand. "Daddy," he exclaimed, handing him the dollar bills. "I've saved exactly $11.00 since Christmas. Can I buy a half-hour of your time?"

I was fortunate to have a dad who was different than the dad in this story. My dad would talk and listen to my sisters and I about our days, our friends, our concerns, our lives. We never felt that we had to purchase a 'half an hour' of time for his presence always reaffirmed for us that we were important, we were valuable, and most of all, we were loved.

I'm very much aware that my deepest images of God have come from my parents. There is an old proverb that says: What God is to the world – so parents are to their children. We learn about God from the ones who nurture us. It is because of my parents that my God is a God of presence – One who always has time for me – One who cherishes me and longs to spend time with me in a joyful abandon – One who constantly reminds me that I am important, and valuable, and most of all, loved.

So, the story, like the Gospel, comes with a challenge for all of us. Whomever is in our care, whomever we are called to nurture, whomever we love – we must always remember that we are image-bearers of God for them. Each time someone comes to us with a concern, and we put our phone down, or turn off Netflix, or pause our Facebook surfing and give another our full attention, we remind them that they are important to us and we become an image of God to them, a God who always claims them as important. Each time we listen to another person - really listen - to understand, and not merely to respond, when we hear what they are saying and discern perhaps what they are not saying, we remind them that they are valuable. We become an image of God for them, a God who tells them of their infinite worth. Every time we forgive another or heal a relationship or give someone a second chance, we become an image of God for them, a God whose love is endless and enduring.

In the summer days ahead, I pray you will find ways to be present to those you love, to those with whom you work, to strangers you meet along the way.

Be an image of God.

Always.

See you in church,
Rhonda

S.A.R.A. Ukrainian Emergency Fund

Many have asked if there is a way in addition to our prayers that we may provide aid to those who are suffering in Ukraine. The answer to that question is “yes”! The Heartland Conference S.A.R.A. partnership will serve as a conduit for aid to partners in Ukraine who are suffering as a result of the war. Daily, our partners are bringing food and water relief to displaced Ukrainians in Transcarpathia. Please know that your gifts of any size make a difference in this critical time. Those wishing to make a donation can send it to the following address:

Jim's Musical Notes

I Need Thee Every Hour (1872)

Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think of anything as being from ourselves, but our sufficiency is from God. 2 Corinthians 3:5

In his book, The Practice of the Presence of God, Brother Lawrence claimed to be as close to God while working in the kitchen as when praying in the chapel. The Lord, after all, is always near us, thus wherever we are is holy ground. That was the experience of Annie Hawks, a housewife and mother of three in Brooklyn, New York.

As a child, Annie Sherwood had dabbled in poetry, her first verse being published when she was 14. In 1857, she married Charles Hawks and they established their home in Brooklyn, joining Dr. Robert Lowry's Hanson Place Baptist Church. With the good doctor's encouragement, she began writing Sunday school songs for children, and he set them to music.

"I Need Thee Every Hour" was written on a bright June morning in 1872. Annie later wrote, "One day as a young wife and mother of 37 years of age, I was busy with my regular household tasks. Suddenly, I became so filled with the sense of nearness to the Master that, wondering how one could live without Him, either in joy or pain, these words, 'I Need Thee Every Hour,' were ushered into my mind, the thought at once taking full possession of me."

The next Sunday, Annie handed these words to Dr. Lowry, who wrote the tune and chorus while seated at the little organ in the living room of his Brooklyn parsonage. Later that year, it was sung for the first time at the National Baptist Sunday School Association meeting in Cincinnati, Ohio, and published in a hymnbook the following year.

When Annie's husband died sixteen years later, she found that her own hymn was among her greatest comforts. "I did not understand at first why this hymn had touched the great throbbing heart of humanity," Annie wrote. "It was not until long after, when the shadow fell over my way, the shadow of great loss, that I understood something of the comforting power in the words which I had been permitted to give out to others in my hour of sweet serenity and peace."

Sometime after Charles' death, Annie moved to Bennington, Vermont, to live with her daughter and son-in-law. All in all, she wrote over four hundred hymns during her eighty-three years, though only this one is still widely sung.

Breaking Bread to Offer Dine-In Option beginning Aug 11, 2022

We will begin serving at the tables in the church fellowship hall on Thursdays (except for the first Thursdays of the month), beginning August 11, 2022. However, in an attempt to keep crowding down, all take outs will continue to be Grab and Go from your car. In an abundance of caution there will be no salad or dessert bars. These will be served to you as well. We are looking forward to the fellowship of eating together. We will also need more help to accomplish this so please let us know if you can help occasionally. Food expenses have increased as well, so donations are greatly appreciated. Thank you for all you do to help us do what Jesus asked: "Feed my sheep."

Breaking Bread will be serving from 4:30 to 5:15pm (unless food is all gone before this). Looking forward to providing delicious free meals to our community every Thursday except the first Thursday of the month.

WOW! THANK YOU! Our church Vacation Bible School was awesome! The excitement and energy levels were high all three nights. Amy Keller was the VBS Director and did an outstanding job with the activities, decorations and getting everything together. Diane Gayer was the "game" lady, and she did super, along with being Diamondback Di in our opening skits. Maddy Frankenhauser once again had great songs for us to sing. From the snack ladies, the teachers, the helpers, the kids and the parents for bringing your kids ... THANK YOU! As Pastor Rhonda said at worship service on June 5th, when you have such a great VBS that you can't wait to come back the next evening....that's exciting! ## UNAPPROVED MINUTES OF THE JUNE 8, 2022 CONSISTORY MEETING

The regular meeting of St. Paul's UCC Consistory was called to order at 6:00 p.m. by President Susan Braun. Pastor Rhonda opened the meeting using the Zacchaeus story and tying it in with legacy giving. In order for Zacchaeus to see Jesus, he had to climb a tree whose seed was planted by someone years before, knowing they would never sit under its shade. That seed planting was leaving an important legacy. In the same way the contributions members of the Consistory make each month are planting seeds for the future growth of St. Paul's UCC.

Present: Elders: Lori Now, Kevin Gehres, and Janet Gibson; Trustees: DeWayne Marsee, and Larry Kill; Deacons: Susan Spencer, Fred Scheer, Carol Waesch, Susan Braun, Jennifer Ginter, Carol Schmidt, Linda McDonald, Jen Lucas, Tom Dickman, and Becky Anderson. Also, present were, Pastor Rhonda Hainer, and, Administrative Assistant Carolyn Garrison.

Minutes: Susan Braun

- Minutes from the May 11, 2022, meeting were reviewed. Fred Scheer made a motion to approve the minutes. Larry Kill seconded. Motion carried.

- On Mother's Day, we handed out carnations and honored all women who have served as Mothers to so many through the years.
- We honored our 7 high school graduates first by hosting a senior breakfast and then during worship we recognized them individually and many received scholarships to further their education. Thank you to the Women's Guild for the delicious breakfast and to the Scholarship Committee once again this year.
- I attended several senior celebrations and am so proud of our young people who are starting a new chapter in their life.
- Just an FYI - As part of my responsibility as UCC Clergy in the Heartland Conference UCC, I serve on the Church and Ministry Committee, which meets once a month. I am also more specifically assigned to the Discernment Working Group, which means I participate along with the others in this group to conduct interviews with those who are in discernment about ministry as a vocation.

- On the afternoon of June 19th, I will be leaving for vacation. Kevin Gehres will preach on June 26th and Rev. Jeanette Tangeman will be on call for pastoral care.

- A new router was installed in the office, preparing for a faster internet speed. Along with the router was a new switch put in the custodian room and a network cable pulled from the office to the custodial room. This switch is in preparation for a cable being pulled to a camera that will be mounted on a light pole on the corner of Perry and High Street and can be used for future projects.
- We are still waiting on a part for one of the men's restroom toilets in the Education Building.
- John Hall can no longer do the mowing. The Trustees are doing the mowing until Brad Gehrlich (our custodian) is available to start mowing.

There are 4 by the entrance doors of the rose window on Perry Street, 1 by the elevator door, 1 by the education building door, 1 by the High Street entrance in the landscape and another one in the area of the new elevator by the brick corner in the landscape. Lynda Hadley has volunteered to water the pots for us.
- May 15 teachers were recognized during the worship service. (18 total were recognized)
- May 15 the kids sang 2 songs during the worship service. The next time we sing is on Rally Day, Sept. 11.
- Vacation Bible School was awesome! Between a combination of kids and adults, we had 53 in attendance for those three evenings. Many thanks to Amy Keller for leading a great VBS. Diane Gayer was our Diamondback Di and also game leader. Maddy Frankenhauser was music leader. Variety of teachers and helpers to lead the kids in our VBS lessons. Thank you to everyone who contributed to VBS. The energy level was high and lots of excitement. When you're more sad than glad to see VBS end, that's a great Vacation Bible School.
- Church camp: we had 4 camp counselors attend church camp. 11 sports camp campers and 2 mini Just Camp campers. The CEN paid $242 each for the sports camp campers and $112 each for the mini-camp campers. This money came from our church camp budget.

Rally Day: Pastor Rhonda provided an update.

- Christian Ed will be welcoming the kids back, Women's Guild will be providing pizza for lunch after worship that day. Carol Schmidt suggested that we call Rally Day "Rally Day Open House" so that people in the community will know that they are welcome to attend. Carol Schmidt asked how Women's Guild was going to judge how many pizzas they were going to purchase. Carolyn suggested doing an RSVP for the Pizza Party, like we currently do for Golden Sunday.
- Since this is a morning event only, the bouncy houses and carnival games have been cancelled.

Christian Mission and Outreach: Jill Dickman (pre-meeting)

- No Report

- Rich would like to spend $300 on a new baptismal bowl. The current one has seen better days. Lori Now made a motion for Rich to purchase a new bowl. Becky Anderson seconded the motion. Motion carried.

Old Business:

- Carol Schmidt gave an update on the donation check for After Prom. Apparently, the check had been misplaced, but has since been found and cashed. The committee was more than thrilled to receive the check for $70.
- Kevin Gehres gave a brief update on Disaster Ministries regarding Temple Hills donating a trailer (which went to Dayton due to all the work still needing to be done during the 2019 tornado), the Southern Ohio/Northern Kentucky Association donated money to put tools in the trailer. A gentleman and a buddy of his has stepped forward and volunteered to build shelving to hold the tools. Beginning June 20th, we will begin six weeks of work in Dayton. Three of those six weeks have been filled with volunteers. Kevin explained that a truck was needed to pull the trailer. Kevin said that he has written a grant, the NWOA has donated money; however, they are still coming up short of approximately $1700 to close the gap in purchasing a truck to pull the trailer.

New Business:

- Pastor Rhonda gave an update on early worship service. She thanked Rich Spencer for his faithful commitment to his technical expertise for both services.
- Due to resistance for Liturgists to be at both services, we will have liturgists only at the 10 am service, as well as the full audio/visual tech team. Organists will be paid for both services.
- Pastor Rhonda reviewed literature on church security and medical emergencies. DeWayne offered to get in touch with the local Fire Department about doing a presentation. Linda McDonald and Carol Schmidt will get together and update the 4 First Aid Kits around the church. Carol mentioned that “gloves” have been hard to find. Carolyn mentioned that she has a couple of boxes of gloves in her office of various sizes and that Carol and Linda are more than welcome to use those boxes and put gloves in a zip-lock bag for each kit.

There being no further matters to discuss, Lori Now made the motion to adjourn, and Jennifer Ginter seconded. The regular meeting adjourned at 6:54 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Susan Braun, 2022 Consistory President
Carolyn Garrison, Administrative Assistant
