ST. PAUL'S SAINTS WHO HAVE DIED
 OCTOBER 31, 2021 – OCTOBER 31, 2022
 ST. PAUL'S UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

Welcome to our celebration of ALL SAINTS' DAY. A tradition practiced in the church since the 4th century, when special services remembering those who had died in the faith were held in the days or weeks following Easter. By the 8th century, the celebration had been moved to its present date, November 1 or the first Sunday in November.

The day offers us the opportunity to rejoice for all those, known to us and unknown, who have tried in their own lives to serve God faithfully. It also gives us occasion to be drawn out of preoccupation with ourselves and our own immediate situations as we affirm our places in the ongoing and living community of saints – of the past, the present, and the future – who abide in God's eternal presence.

Today, we remember:

Marvalee Rupert	February 5, 2022

Joshua 3:14

New Revised Standard Version Updated Edition

¹⁴ When the people set out from their tents to cross over the Jordan, the priests bearing the Ark of the Covenant were in front of the people.

Joshua 4:9

New Revised Standard Version Updated Edition

⁹ (Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests bearing the ark of the covenant had stood, and they are there to this day.)

1 Thessalonians 2:9-13

Edition

New Revised Standard Version Updated

⁹ You remember our labor and toil, brothers and sisters; we worked night and day so that we might not burden any of you while we proclaimed to you the gospel of God. ¹⁰ You are witnesses, and God also, how pure, upright, and blameless our conduct was toward you believers. ¹¹ As you know, we dealt with each one of you like a father with his children, ¹² urging and encouraging you and pleading that you lead a life worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.

¹³ We also constantly give thanks to God for this, that when you received the word of God that you heard from us you accepted it not as a human word but as what it really is, God's word, which is also at work in you believers
