

FORM CRS, CUSTOMER RELATIONSHIP SUMMARY
THIS FORM WAS LAST UPDATED: MARCH 2023

Introduction	Coulter &amp; Justus Financial Services, LLC, doing business as C &amp; J Wealth Advisors ("Firm" or "We") maintains registration with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an Investment Adviser. Investment advisory services and fees differ from that of brokerage services and fees. It is important for the retail investor to understand the difference. Our firm provides investment advisory services. Our firm does not provide brokerage services. This document gives you a summary of the types of services we provide and how you pay. Please ask us for more information. If you would like to learn more, free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at, https://www.investor.gov/CRS which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.
What investment services and advice can you provide me?	C&amp;J Wealth Advisors works with our clients to provide individually tailored investment management services to retail clients on a discretionary basis or a non-discretionary basis. A "discretionary basis" means that we will make the ultimate investment decisions without your consent. You can also choose to have your account managed on a "non-discretionary basis", meaning that we will recommend investments to you and you will make the ultimate decision regarding the purchase or sale of investments. C&amp;J Wealth Advisors utilizes a broad-range of securities to meet a client's specific needs. These securities include publicly traded equities, Mutual Funds and ETFs. Our management services include ongoing monitoring that comprises, but is not limited to, asset allocation, asset selection, account performance and periodic rebalancing. If you want to limit the types of investments made in your account, you will need to provide those limitations to us in writing. Our firm requires a minimum level of assets of $25,000 for its investment supervisory services. We also provide financial planning services. Our services can involve consultation, analysis, and recommendations in six areas. (1) financial situation, (2) income taxes, (3) insurance, (4) investments, (5) retirement planning, and (6) estate planning. As well, you can engage our firm to provide continuous monitoring and recommendations regarding assets "held away" at other advisors and brokers. When we provide these types of services, you are solely responsible for executing any buys and sells. C&amp;J Wealth Advisors will provide advice but will not make investment changes in accounts held away. In addition, you may engage our firm for separate consulting services that are tailored to your needs. For additional information about our services or how we invest, please click here to see our firm's Form ADV, Part 2A Disclosure Brochure, Items 4, 7 and 8. CONVERSATION STARTERS. CONSIDER ASKING YOUR FINANCIAL PROFESSIONAL THESE QUESTIONS: Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not? How will you choose investments to recommend to me? What is your relevant experience, including licenses, education, and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?
What fees will I pay?	For investment management services, you will pay an on-going, asset-based fee. The management fee is an annual fee billed in advance, on a quarterly basis. The total fee is calculated on a tiered schedule (tiers apply breakpoint levels when you have invested certain amounts) which calculates the fee using "assets under management" that have been recommended and invested in your account. The initial asset-based fee will not exceed 1.2% of your assets under our management and will be fully disclosed within your client profile and advisory agreement. Please contact us if you have questions or concerns about our fees or your account. Clients should be aware that the advisory fee does not include transfer fees, margin interest, and any commissions, mark-ups/mark-downs on transactions. Any specialized custodial account charges, such as IRA account fees, are also charged to you by the qualified custodian. Clients whose funds are invested in money market funds, mutual funds or ETFs also pay fees to the fund sponsor in addition to advisory fees. These fees include management, fund and distribution expenses and are described in each sponsor's prospectus. Please see Items 5 and 12 of our firms' ADV Part 2A for additional information regarding these expenses. For most clients, we ask you to sign a written authorization to have fees directly debited from your account(s) held at the qualified custodian. When our firm charges you an "asset-based" fee, you should be aware that the more assets that are in your retail account, the more you will pay in fees. Therefore, the firm has an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account. One example of this is encouraging a client to roll over their 401(k) assets into an account that the advisor can manage and thereby earn an asset-based fee. You are never under any obligation to add new assets to your account.

What fees will I pay? (Continued)	Financial planning and consulting fees vary and are negotiable depending on the complexity and size of the project. Fees will be structured as either hourly or fixed fees. You will agree to these fees, in writing, prior to the commencement of such services. For more information about our fees and to review our financial planning fee schedules, please see Item 5 Fees, of our firm's ADV Part 2A. Found here: ADV Part 2A You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. CONVERSATION STARTERS. CONSIDER ASKING YOUR FINANCIAL PROFESSIONAL THESE QUESTIONS:  Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs and how much will be invested for me?
What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser?	When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interests ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they affect the recommendations we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means. Our firm has a duty to disclose all potential conflicts to you. Our firm has disclosed conflicts and potential conflicts of interest in the Firm Disclosure Brochure, Form ADV Part 2A, Items 10, 11, 12 and 14. You can find the ADV Part 2A here: ADV Part 2A. The ADV Part 2B Supplement talks about your financial professional and outlines specific conflicts regarding that individual. Please ask your financial consultant for a copy or see the link below. Be sure to review these pieces carefully and consult us with any questions or concerns.
How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?	C&amp;J Wealth Advisors participates in the Institutional Advisor program offered by TD Ameritrade Institutional/Schwab Advisor Services™ and we will typically recommend TD Ameritrade/Schwab to clients for custody services. Clients should be aware that our firm receives certain benefits from TD Ameritrade/Schwab through participation in their support programs which also include benefits such as succession planning, practice valuation, and equity management services provided by third-party vendors. The receipt of any economic benefit by our firm or its associates in and of itself creates a potential conflict of interest and may indirectly influence our choice of TD Ameritrade/Schwab for custody and brokerage. Most of our financial professionals are paid a salary and are eligible to receive a year-end bonus for general work performance and overall firm profitability. One financial professional receives a portion of the management fee that we receive on the assets we manage for you. This provides an incentive because the more your portfolio with our firm grows, whether because of market performance or additional assets under management, the greater your advisor's potential for a bonus will be.
How do your financial professionals make money?	Certain financial professionals are also licensed as insurance professionals with our affiliate CJIS, LLC. These individuals earn commission-based compensation for selling insurance products, including insurance products they sell to advisory clients. Insurance commissions earned by an advisory person are separate and in addition to C&amp;J Wealth Advisors' advisory fees. This practice presents a conflict of interest because a person providing investment advice on behalf of our firm, who is also an insurance agent has an incentive to favor and recommend insurance products to clients for the purpose of generating commissions rather than solely based on client needs. For more information about your financial professional's activities and education, review the individual's ADV Part 2B Supplement. You can locate each financial professional's ADV Part 2B Supplement here: ADV Part 2B. CONVERSATION STARTERS.
