

Remember This

Obey Jesus

GROUP DISCUSSION GUIDE

Discussion

1. Think of a time you were given clear instructions but didn't follow through—what happened?

2. What resonated with you from Sunday's worship?

Read John 14:15.

3. How does Jesus connect love and obedience?

Read James 1:22-25.

4. What warning does James give about hearing without doing?

5. How does the mirror imagery challenge the way we approach God's Word?

6. Why does obedience ultimately lead to freedom and not restriction?

Read 2 Peter 1:12.

7. Where in your life do you need to be reminded to obey Jesus?

8. How would seeing Jesus as the perfect coach and the Bible as the perfect playbook change your life?

9. What is one practical step you can take this week to move from hearing to doing?

2 Peter 1:12

So I will always remind you of these things, even though you know them and are firmly established in the truth you now have.

John 14:15

If you love me, keep my commands.

James 1:22-25

²² Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. ²³ Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror ²⁴ and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. ²⁵ But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—they will be blessed in what they do.

Next Steps

- Love Jesus: Write your favorite verses in a personalized playbook for your life.
- Connect with Others: Share one of your favorite verses with a trusted friend and why it's important to you.
- Serve the World: Run the play. Serve the next time you are asked.
- Reach the Lost: Step onto the field and initiate a conversation with someone about Jesus, trusting Him with the outcome.

Love Jesus. Connect with Others. Serve the World. Reach the Lost.
