Journeying through Lent

“Christian love breaks down every barrier, brings close those who were distant, unites strangers, and reconciles enemies. It spans chasms that are humanly impossible to bridge, and it penetrates to the most hidden crevices of society. By its very nature, Christian love is prophetic: it works miracles and knows no limits. It makes what was apparently impossible happen, Love is above all a way of looking at life and a way of living it. A Church that sets no limits to love, that knows no enemies to fight but only men and women to love, is the Church that the world needs today.” Pope Leo XIV, Dilexi te, no. 120

Ash Wednesday (February 18) Join us for Mass! 6am CTK / 8:30am both campuses / 6pm CTK

Week 1 (February 22-28): This week, try to focus on helping others. How do you help at home, school, or work? How did Jesus help others?

*“One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.”
- Matthew 4:4*

Week 2 (March 1-7): This week, try to focus on sharing with others. How do you share at home, school, or work? How did Jesus share with others?

*“Bear your share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God.”
- 2 Timothy 1:8*

Week 3 (March 8-14): This week, talk with God when you are afraid. How does God help you feel brave at home, school, or work? When was Jesus brave?

*“Lord, you are truly the Savior of the world: give me living water, that I may never thirst again.”
- John 4:42, 15*

Week 4 (March 15-21): This week, try to focus on thanking God for his many blessings. What are some things you are thankful for at home, school, or work? What do you think Jesus is thankful for?

“Live as children of light, for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth.” - Ephesians 5:8-9

Week 5 (March 22-28): This week, focus on being patient with ourselves. How do you show patience with yourself at home, school, or work? How was Jesus patient with Himself?

*“I have to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world.”
- John 11:27*

Holy Week (March 29-April 4): This week, focus on praying to Jesus. Where do you pray to Jesus at home, school, or work? What do you most like to pray to Jesus about?

“Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, hosanna in the highest.”
