HELLO THERE!

written and directed by
THOMAS B. THOMSON

Movies are my forever love.
At age 16, I wrote and directed my first short films and music videos.
I became an actor, a photographer, worked as cameraman, editor, creative producer, and at some point ended up founding and co-leading a production company within a marketing agency.
With roots in Peru and Scotland, I grew up as a late 80's child in the West-German countryside, travelling a lot, learning even more. I lived and worked in Washington D.C., Berlin, Los Angeles, and Hamburg. In 2024, I returned to the free market as screen writer and director.
