

Lectors

Lectors proclaim the Word of God to the parish community during the celebration of the Holy Mass. Through careful preparation and reverent proclamation, they help the faithful listen to and reflect upon Sacred Scripture.

Lectors proclaim the readings from the Old and New Testaments, with the exception of the Gospel, which is proclaimed by the priest or deacon. Depending on the needs of the celebration, they may also lead the Prayer of the Faithful and fulfill other responsibilities entrusted to them.

This ministry calls for a love of Sacred Scripture, a commitment to preparation, and the ability to proclaim God's Word clearly and reverently. Lectors serve as instruments through whom the Word of God is shared with the entire worshipping community.
