

Eucharistic Minister

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion serve the Church by assisting with the reverent distribution of Holy Communion when needed. This ministry is a special opportunity to serve God's people while showing deep respect and devotion to the Most Holy Eucharist.

Extraordinary Ministers assist in the distribution of Holy Communion according to the needs of the parish and the norms of the Church. Those called to this ministry receive the appropriate formation and are asked to carry out their responsibilities with faith, reverence, humility, and a deep love for Christ present in the Eucharist.

This ministry is a meaningful way to serve the parish community and participate more deeply in the sacred celebration of the Mass.
