Thankfulness

Rev. Julia Schwert

Thanksgiving is upon us. November is the time our country celebrates the holiday of Thanksgiving. What are you thankful for? What is the most important thing in your life? Take a moment and think about it. Is it your spouse, your significant other, your children, your grandchildren, brothers, sisters, parents, grandparents, or maybe your close friends? Is it your home, financial security, or your place of employment? Maybe it is the material things you possess or the accomplishments you've achieved.

To help you answer that question truthfully, let me phrase it another way: 'What is it that you feel you can't possibly live without?' 'What would devastate you the most if it was taken from you?' Would it be a position you currently hold? Maybe your bank account or your closest family member or friend. Would it be your house, a favorite outfit, or your retirement income?

David said in Psalm 51:11 – "Cast me not away from Your presence; take not Your Holy Spirit from me." David was repenting for the sins he had committed and was asking God to create in him a clean heart. The thing he cherished the most was God's presence and His Holy Spirit. He was pleading with God to not leave him. He knew he couldn't live without God's presence in his life or trying to live without the Holy Spirit guiding him in the right direction.

Today I want to thank God for His presence in my life and for the Holy Spirit, His Spirit, that dwells within me. I know, or at least I hope, you are also thankful for God's presence in your life. Let us cherish His presence everywhere we are – at home, at work, shopping, driving – wherever we are and no matter what we are doing, let us be thankful for the privilege of having His Spirit dwell in us, to protect and guide us.

God desires a close relationship with mankind. Many have, and will continue to, reject Him; thus, grieving His Holy Spirit. Father, help us not to reject you or take you for granted. May we learn to value your presence in our lives and submit to you. It is when we learn to daily submit that we will find the secret of abundant living. It is in that state that we will find rest and peace that passes all understanding regardless of the circumstances that surround us.

Be thankful with me that the Lord has called you, He has chosen you, to be a vessel of honor for Him in this world. God can only work through people. Are you willing to let Him use you and be thankful for how He decides to use you? Remember, He knows best. He designed each of us with different, unique abilities that He desires to use in expanding His Kingdom. Thank the Lord! He trusts you with His Spirit! He trusts you to follow where He is leading you! He trusts you to help expand the Kingdom of God. Thank you, Lord, for your never-ending love, forgiveness, and trust you have extended to me.

Updates from our 2025 Ministerial Summit

- We said, “See you later” to Dean James W. Barnes who passed away on Friday, Oct. 24. He was named Dean for Rivers of Living Water Ministries International, Inc. in 2019 and signed many of our credentials and awards.

- The Bishop Onyx Duane Simmons Award was presented to Rev. David and Rev. Jacqueline Rogers during our Saturday afternoon meeting on Oct. 25.
- Saturday Evening, Oct. 25, we had a wonderful time celebrating the 25th Anniversary of RLWMII at the Neeley Center. Apostle Robert L. & Lady Joyce M. Jones were presented with a plaque and a certificate to honor their obedience and dedication as they founded Rivers of Living Water Ministries International, Inc. They were also presented with a bouquet of 25 roses of various colors to represent the multicultural make-up of our organization. At the end of the evening, gifts were given to those in attendance.
- On Sunday, Oct. 26, Edwarda Hernandez was licensed as a minister, and Domingo Hernandez was ordained along with the ordination of Howard Nathan Maupin.
- Sunday, Oct. 26, we also elevated Rev. Ricky James from Trinidad-Tobago to the position of Bishop-Elect.

Thank you for such a successful evening because of . . .

- Rev. Angela Allicock for being instrumental in obtaining the gift donations and baskets from area businesses.
- Sister Marie Herbst for organizing, preparing, and serving the meals for the Ministerial Summit on Friday evening and Saturday.
- Rev. Dell Kinsey for organizing the decorations that were at our 25th Anniversary Celebration and all the ‘little’ things your hands found to do to make this a success.
- Miss Monique Perkins for being our official photographer at our celebration.
- To those on the committee organizing and planning this successful 25th Anniversary Celebration.
