

A new way to save on meds

Home delivery from Amazon Pharmacy

Amazon Pharmacy offers a home delivery service that lets you easily order and quickly get your nonspecialty drugs<sup>1</sup> delivered at home. And as a member of Blue Cross & Blue Shield of Rhode Island, you get access to the MedsYourWay® prescription drug discount card pricing, administered by Inside Rx.<sup>2</sup> The prescription discount card gives you up to 80% savings<sup>3</sup> on brand and generic meds and is seamlessly built into the Amazon Pharmacy experience. You can get the lowest cost available while saving time and money. The MedsYourWay discount card is not insurance; however, using it for covered medicines will count toward your out-of-pocket maximum.<sup>4</sup>
