MNEMBA ISLAND, ZANZIBAR

A whole new meaning to "luxury"

ZANZIBAR

Our time in Zanzibar

If you are looking for real culture and tradition combined with a bit of luxury then Zanzibar is a great destination:

Imagine waking up to the turquoise Indian Ocean and the scent of exotic spices on the breeze. That's Zanzibar, the "Spice Island," and our recent journey confirmed it's an extraordinary escape waiting for you.

Our adventure began with a sensory spice garden tour, then a deep dive into Stone Town's historic alleys, from the poignant Old Slave Market to stunning sunsets over ancient buildings.

The ocean truly captivated us. We embarked on a thrilling boat trip, swimming incredibly close to dolphins near Mnemba Island Atoll, followed by an unforgettable snorkel dive in crystal-clear waters teeming with diverse fish. Getting so close to these magnificent creatures was a dream!

The pinnacle was the Safari Blue Cruise – an authentic dhow journey. We savoured fresh tropical fruits on a pristine sandbank, snorkelled among vibrant fish, and explored the enchanting Blue Lagoon. Followed by a seafood buffet on an island. The grand finale was a truly magical sail back. Wind in the sails and pure relaxation after a day of wonder.

Zanzibar truly surprised us with how clean and safe it was – a true haven for relaxation.

At African Holidays, we don't just book trips; we experience them. Our Zanzibar journey allowed us to personally connect with trusted local suppliers, ensuring a seamless and authentic experience tailored just for you. Our firsthand knowledge means your dream Zanzibar holiday is within reach.

Ready for your own island escape? Let us turn it into a reality.

Eight Continents Hotels

On our recent trip we decided to mix culture with a bit of luxury. This experience was not aimed at being on the best part of the island. It was aimed at experiencing the whole island and its people, culture and other hidden gems. We found ourselves at the Tree top hotel which combines a bit luxury with great value for money, and speaks to families and couples wanting a quick get away.
