SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 6, 2026

Welcome to Saint Anthony's

If you are new to St. Anthony of Padua Parish, please know how welcome you are to worship God with us. The motto of our parish is written in Latin over the front entrance: "The hardworking people of St. Anthony have built this Temple to the Lord." We know that we have been blessed with one of the most beautiful church most people have ever seen and that the Lord demands more of those who have been given more. Our goal is to allow the Lord to build with us a parish community of "living Stones" even more beautiful than the physical edifice in which we have the awesome privilege to worship Him. We would love you to become part of that building project!

Pastor Message

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, this Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, the readings invite us to reflect deeply on our responsibility toward one another as members of God's family. Christian charity is not simply about being kind or avoiding conflict; it also means caring enough to help one another remain faithful to the Gospel. Some-guilt, but I will hold you responsible for his death." These words remind us that we are, indeed, our brother's and sister's keeper. God entrusts us with one another, especially those who may be struggling, suffering, or walking away from what is right. When we see someone in need, we should not simply turn away. When a brother or sister is making a harmful choice, charity may call us to speak with love and humility.

Fraternal correction should never come from anger, pride, or a desire to judge. It must come from genuine concern for the other person and a desire to help him or her grow closer to God. We correct not because we think we are better, but because we love one another.

munity where Christ can truly dwell among us.

As we begin this new week, let us ask the Lord for the wisdom and courage to correct with charity, to forgive generously, and to care for those entrusted to our lives. May we never be indifferent to the needs of our brothers and sisters.

Please pray for me this week, as I will be away on retreat. I ask for your prayers and spiritual support during this special time with the Lord.

Finally, I wish all the workers of our parish a happy and blessed Labor Day. May the Lord continue to sustain you, bless the work of your hands, and reward your dedication to your families, our parish, and our community.

Have a blessed and happy Sunday!

times, love requires us to offer a fraternal correction.

In the first reading, God speaks to the prophet Ezekiel and reminds him of his responsibility as a watchman for the people: "If you do not speak out to dissuade the wicked from his way, the wicked shall die for his

In the Gospel, Jesus also reminds us of the importance of reconciliation and peace within the Christian community. He tells us, "If two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father." Our unity matters. When we forgive, reconcile, and seek peace with one another, we create a com-

Saint John Chrysostom

 FEAST DAY - SEPTEMBER 13

Called "Golden Mouth," John was renowned for his excellent preaching, which explained Church teaching and challenged his people to live Christian lives of devotion to the Lord. He was a good pastor to the people he served as bishop of Constantinople. His theological writings help to shape the thought of the Church, even today.

— excerpt from Essential Guide to Seasons and Saints, USCCB: 2013

John Chrysostom was called one of the most prolific Fathers of the Church by Pope Benedict XVI. During a general audience speech in 2007, Benedict said that John gave more than 700 unique homilies in his lifetime and 241 letters he wrote still exist today. Benedict said John was instrumental in passing on Church doctrine at a time when the divinity of Christ was being questioned. He said,

“ All his discourses aimed to develop in the faithful the use of intelligence, of true reason, in order to understand and to put into practice the moral and spiritual requirements of faith. ”

Mensaje del Padre Mariano

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo: en este XXIII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, la Palabra de Dios nos invita a reflexionar sobre nuestra responsabilidad hacia los demás y sobre la importancia de la caridad fraterna. Jesús nos recuerda que la vida cristiana no consiste solamente en cuidar ta de su muerte». Estas palabras nos recuerdan que somos responsables unos de otros. Dios quiere que cuidemos de nuestros hermanos, especialmente de aquellos que están necesitados, sufriendo o alejándose del camino del Señor.

Por eso, la corrección fraterna es también una expresión de caridad. Corregir a alguien nunca debe hacerse desde el orgullo, la ira o el deseo de juzgar. Cuando corregimos, debemos hacerlo con amor, humildad, respeto y misericordia, buscando sinceramente el bien de la otra persona. A veces, amar significa tener el valor de hablar y ayudar a un hermano o hermana a reconocer aquello que necesita cambiar en su vida.

esté verdaderamente presente entre nosotros.

Pidamos al Señor la gracia de cuidar unos de otros, de corregir con caridad, perdonar de corazón y buscar siempre la paz.

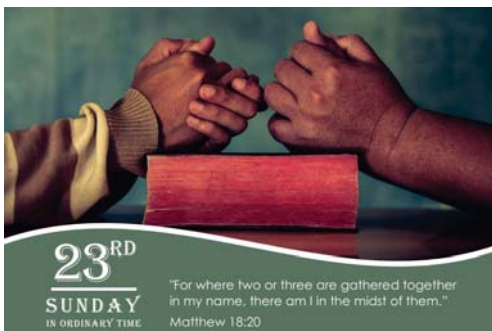

Les pido también que recen por mí durante esta semana, pues estaré en retiro. Agradezco de corazón sus oraciones y les pido que me acompañen espiritualmente durante este tiempo de encuentro con el Señor.

Finalmente, deseo un feliz y bendecido Día del Trabajo a todos los trabajadores de nuestra parroquia. Que el Señor continúe sosteniéndolos, bendiciendo el trabajo de sus manos y acompañando a sus familias.

¡Que tengan todos un domingo feliz y lleno de las bendiciones de Dios!

En Cristo,

P. Mariano Varela, IVE

nuestra propia relación con Dios, sino también en preocuparnos por nuestros hermanos y hermanas.

En la primera lectura, Dios habla al profeta Ezequiel y le dice: «Si tú no hablas para apartar al malvado de su camino, el malvado morirá por su culpa, pero a ti te pediré cuen-ta de la importancia de vivir en paz y unidad. Nos dice: «Si dos de ustedes se ponen de acuerdo en la tierra para pedir algo, se lo dará mi Padre que está en el cielo». Estas palabras nos recuerdan el poder de la oración cuando estamos unidos en el amor. El perdón, la reconciliación y la paz fortalecen nuestra comunidad y permiten que Cristo
