Welcome to Saint Anthony's

If you are new to St. Anthony of Padua Parish, please know how welcome you are to worship God with us. The motto of our parish is written in Latin over the front entrance: "The hardworking people of St. Anthony have built this Temple to the Lord." We know that we have been blessed with one of the most beautiful church most people have ever seen and that the Lord demands more of those who have been given more. Our goal is to allow the Lord to build with us a parish community of "living Stones" even more beautiful than the physical edifice in which we have the awesome privilege to worship Him. We would love you to become part of that building project!

Pastor's message

Dear brothers and sisters, at the beginning of the liturgical year, St. John the Evangelist explains to us who Jesus is and thus his mission. In two sentences, John defines the Savior; this way first, who is he? Answer, the "Lamb of God", secondly, what is his mission? "takes away the sin of the world." All the prophecies referring to the Messiah come to fulfillment in Jesus, the anointed one. He is indeed the "Servant of God" spoken of by the prophet Isaiah, who will gather not only the scattered tribes of Israel, but all nations, and bring them back to God. John points him out to us also, as our salvation. We also know that John the Baptist, by pointing to Jesus as the Lamb of God, his own disciples left him to follow our blessed Lord. There is a principle that says, "no one loves what he does not know" the disciples left John the Baptist because they were enchanted with Jesus, and on that day, they spent the whole afternoon with Him.

Our invitation at the beginning of the year should also be how great is my willingness to be Christ's disciple. Perhaps I do not follow him because I do not know him. This should lead us to deepen our understanding of his message of salvation and above all to talk to him within our hearts through prayer. Doing this, we will be able to know more of our faith and follow in the footsteps of our savior, and obey the precepts of our holy mother Church.

There are people who complain that children are given too much homework in catechism, or that they are required to do too many things for Confirmation. We can see from experience that when children and young people do not know much about the faith at the minimum level, they forget later in time that they are Catholics and sometimes they do not know what confirmation is, no idea what first communion or eucharist is, and not even how to go to confession. Not to mention the main prayers. Today it is said, "Few people go to Mass," "less and less people go to church" etc. And why all this, because Jesus and his teaching are unknown. We need people who like John the Baptist, points with his finger and says, "that is, the Lamb of God" who came to "take away the sin of the world".

So, let us commit ourselves to teach our children and young people to deepen our faith so that the Church may really become a house of prayer and not a social club or a amusement park.

All Glory and honor to Christ for ever. Have a blessed Sunday.

Mensaje del Padre Marcelo

“He ahí el Cordero de Dios, que quita el pecado del mundo”

Hoy hemos escuchado a Juan que, al ver a Jesús, dice: «He ahí el Cordero de Dios, que quita el pecado del mundo» (Jn 1,29). ¿Qué debieron pensar aquellas gentes? Y, ¿qué entendemos nosotros? En la celebración de la Eucaristía todos rezamos: «Cordero de Dios que quitas el pecado del mundo, ten piedad de nosotros / danos la paz». Y el sacerdote invita a los fieles a la Comunión diciendo: «Éste es el Cordero de Dios que quita el pecado del mundo...».

No dudemos de que, cuando Juan dijo «he ahí el Cordero de Dios», todos entendieron qué quería decir, ya que el “cordero” es una metáfora de carácter mesiánico que habían usado los profetas, principalmente Isaías, y que era bien conocida por todos los buenos israelitas.

Por otro lado, el cordero es el animalito que los israelitas sacrifican para recordar la pascua, la liberación de la esclavitud de Egipto. La cena pascual consiste en comer un cordero.

Y aun los Apóstoles y los padres de la Iglesia dicen que el cordero es signo de pureza, simplicidad, bondad, mansedumbre, inocencia... y Cristo es la Pureza, la Simplicidad, la Bondad, la Mansedumbre, la Inocencia. San Pedro dirá: «Habéis sido rescatados (...) con una sangre preciosa, como de cordero sin tacha y sin mancha, Cristo» (1Pe 1,18.19). Y san Juan, en el Apocalipsis, emplea hasta treinta veces el término “cordero” para designar a Jesucristo.

Cristo es el cordero que quita el pecado del mundo, que ha sido inmolado para darnos la gracia. Luchemos para vivir siempre en gracia, luchemos contra el pecado, aborrecámoslo. La belleza del alma en gracia es tan grande que ningún tesoro se le puede comparar. Nos hace agradables a Dios y dignos de ser amados. Por eso, en el “Gloria” de la Misa se habla de la paz que es propia de los hombres que ama el Señor, de los que están en gracia.

San Juan Pablo II, urgiéndonos a vivir en la gracia que el Cordero nos ha ganado, nos dice: «Comprometeos a vivir en gracia. Jesús ha nacido en Belén precisamente para eso (...). vivir en gracia es la dignidad suprema, es la alegría inefable, es garantía de paz, es un ideal maravilloso».

Que tengan una bendecida semana
Padre Marcelo da Silva, IVE
