Welcome to Saint Anthony's

If you are new to St. Anthony of Padua Parish, please know how welcome you are to worship God with us. The motto of our parish is written in Latin over the front entrance: "The hard-working people of St. Anthony have built this Temple to the Lord." We know that we have been blessed with one of the most beautiful church most people have ever seen and that the Lord demands more of those who have been given more. Our goal is to allow the Lord to build with us a parish community of "living Stones" even more beautiful than the physical edifice in which we have the awesome privilege to worship Him. We would love you to become part of that building project!

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear brothers and sisters, two years ago Pope Francis with the Motu Proprio, Aperuit Illis, instituted "Sunday of the Word of God" to be celebrated on the Third Sunday of Ordinary time. Today as we continue our liturgical calendar we set apart this Sunday to appreciate and to thank God the Father for his Word given to us. With this initiative Pope Francis reminds us of the importance and value of Sacred Scripture for the Christian life, as well as the relationship between the Word of God and the liturgy. This Sunday presents an ideal opportunity to read, meditate and contemplate the Word of God, as the Holy Spirit inspired the authors of the Holy Scriptures. "It is now common for the Christian community to set aside moments to reflect on the great importance of the word of God for everyday living." Aperuit Illis 2. What a grace for us to have God's words accessible to us now through his Son Jesus, "In the past God spoke to our forefathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways, but in these last days he has spoken to us by His Son." (Heb 1:1) Jesus, the Word Incarnate, speaks to us to give us hope and confidence as we journey to the Kingdom of God, "My Words are Spirit and Life" (John 6:63) Pope Francis reminds us, "These words contain a great teaching. The Bible cannot be just the heritage of some, much less a collection of books for the benefit of a privileged few. It belongs above all to those called to hear its message and to recognize themselves in its words. At times, there can be a tendency to monopolize the sacred text by restricting it to certain circles or to select groups. It cannot be that way. The Bible is the book of the Lord's people, who, in listening to it, move from dispersion and division towards unity. The word of God unites believers and makes them one people." Aperuit Illis # 4. As we meditate and contemplate God's word in the scripture let us take the example of Mary our Mother. The gospels relate that all the events of Jesus were treasured in Mary's Immaculate Heart. That we may truly welcome the word of God as He speaks to us personally, so that we may live and direct our lives according to his decrees and bear fruits in our lives. Happy Sunday of the Word of God.

Fr. Mariano Varela, IVE

LITURGY CORNER

Listed here are 10 points for fruitful Scripture reading.

Bible reading is for Catholics. The Church encourages Catholics to make reading the Bible part of their daily prayer lives. Reading these inspired words, people grow deeper in their relationship with God and come to understand their place in the community God has called them to in himself. Prayer is the beginning and the end. Reading the Bible is not like reading a novel or a history book. It should begin with a prayer asking the Holy Spirit to open our hearts and minds to the Word of God. Scripture reading should end with a prayer that this Word will bear fruit in our lives, helping us to become holier and more faithful people. Get the whole story! When selecting a Bible, look for a Catholic edition. A Catholic edition will include the Church's complete list of sacred books along with introductions and notes for understanding the text. A Catholic edition will have an imprimatur notice on the back of the title page. An imprimatur indicates that the book is free of errors in Catholic doctrine. The Bible isn't a book. It's a library. The Bible is a collection of 73 books written over the course of many centuries. The books include royal history, prophecy, poetry, challenging letters to struggling new faith communities, and believers' accounts of the preaching and passion of Jesus. Knowing the genre of the book you are reading will help you understand the literary tools the author is using and the meaning the author is trying to convey. Know what the Bible is – and what it isn't. The Bible is the story of God's relationship with the people he has called to himself. It is not intended to be read as history text, a science book, or a political manifesto. In the Bible, God teaches us the truths that we need for the sake of our salvation. The sum is greater than the parts. Read the Bible in context. What happens before and after – even in other books – helps us to understand the true meaning of the text. The Old relates to the New. The Old Testament and the New Testament shed light on each other. While we read the Old Testament in light of the death and resurrection of Jesus, it has its own value as well. Together, these testaments help us to understand God's plan for human beings. You do not read alone. By reading and reflecting on Sacred Scripture, Catholics join those faithful men and women who have taken God's Word to heart and put it into practice in their lives. We read the Bible within the tradition of the Church to benefit from the holiness and wisdom of all the faithful.

What is God saying to me? The Bible is not addressed only to long-dead people in a faraway land. It is addressed to each of us in our own unique situations. When we read, we need to understand what the text says and how the faithful have understood its meaning in the past. In light of this understanding, we then ask: What is God saying to me?

Reading isn't enough. If Scripture remains just words on a page, our work is not done. We need to meditate on the message and put it into action in our lives. Only then can the word be "living and effective." (Hebrews 4:12).source: Understanding the Bible | USCCB

Mensaje del Párroco

Queridos hermanos hace dos años el Papa Francisco con el Motu Proprio, Apparuit Illis, instituyó el “Domingo de la Palabra de Dios” para ser celebrado en el Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario. Hoy continuando con nuestro calendario litúrgico apartamos este domingo para apreciar y agradecer a Dios Padre por su Palabra que nos ha dado. Con esta iniciativa el Papa Francisco nos recuerda la importancia y el valor de la Sagrada Escritura para la vida cristiana, así como la relación entre la Palabra de Dios y la liturgia. Este domingo se presenta una oportunidad ideal para leer, meditar y contemplar la Palabra de Dios, como el Espíritu Santo inspiró a los autores de las Sagradas Escrituras. “Ahora es común que la comunidad cristiana dedique momentos para reflexionar sobre la gran importancia de la palabra de Dios para la vida diaria”. Aperuit Illis 2. Qué gracia para nosotros

Domingo de la Palabra de Dios

tener las palabras de Dios accesibles ahora a nosotros a través de su Hijo Jesús: “En el pasado Dios habló a nuestros antepasados a través de los profetas muchas veces y de varias maneras, pero en estos últimos días ha hablado a nosotros por Su Hijo.” (Heb 1:1) Jesús, el Verbo Encarnado, nos habla para darnos esperanza y confianza en nuestro camino hacia el Reino de Dios, “Mis Palabras son Espíritu y Vida” (Juan 6:63). Me da mucha alegría saber que la comunidad hispana de la parroquia San Antonio tiene una gran veneración por las sagradas Escrituras. Y otra interpretación debe ser basada en la enseñanza de la iglesia católica junto con los comentarios de los santos Padres y el magisterio, para que así podamos discernir lo que la Dios nos quiere decir a través de su palabra. Feliz Domingo a todos

P. Mariano Varela, IVE

Oramos por la revocación de Roe v. Wade. Se espera que la Corte Suprema de los Estados Unidos escuche los argumentos en el caso de Dobbs v. Jackson, que proviene del estado de Mississippi. La decisión del tribunal se espera para junio de 2022.
