Welcome to Saint Anthony's

If you are new to St. Anthony of Padua Parish, please know how welcome you are to worship God with us. The motto of our parish is written in Latin over the front entrance: "The hardworking people of St. Anthony have built this Temple to the Lord." We know that we have been blessed with one of the most beautiful church most people have ever seen and that the Lord demands more of those who have been given more. Our goal is to allow the Lord to build with us a parish community of "living Stones" even more beautiful than the physical edifice in which we have the awesome privilege to worship Him. We would love you to become part of that building project!

Pastor's message

Dear brothers and sisters we are in the middle of the summer season, what a beautiful opportunity for us as parish to get together for the parish social picnic on Sunday July 24th.

I hope many families will take this opportunity to take part of that afternoon.

This Sunday we are invited reflect on the same example Jesus gave to the scholar of the law. Who is my neighbor? Our neighbor will be the one who fell in the power of the enemies, a person drawn away from the church by the scandals;

someone being deceived about his true identity; a person who suffered depression from a long hurt situation, and the example can go on and on. The Samaritan were enemy of the Jews and this man proved himself that although there were difference between them, in time of need those different ceased. You may remember that story in 1914. The Christmas Truce occurred on and around Christmas Day 1914, when the sounds of rifles firing and shells exploding faded in a number of places along the Western Front during World War I in favor of holiday celebrations. The soldiers paused to celebrate.

How can I refuse someone in need? Someone who is placed in my way so that I can make use of my talents and love.? This parable is a challenge to us to reconsider the boundaries we set up whether the person is of my race, my neighborhood, my color, my social status, etc. and etc.. We are all made in the image of our heavenly Father, and so we have the potentiality to care and to love, "God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us" Rom 5:5

God's providence allows us to put into practice this command of the Lord, "Go and do likewise" to say a kind word, to give a little support, lend a listening ear, to offer a little sympathy.

May our Virgin Mary help us with her grace to be a good Samaritan helping our brothers and sisters in most need.

Catechist Wanted: We need your help to share your faith or your talents in faith formation night this new school year. Please write your name or just call to the parish for inquiring about how you can help. Remember we have to be the new Samaritans of the XXI century by helping other with our generosity and sacrifices. Happy Sunday to everyone!

*Christus vincit! Christus regnat!
Christus imperat!*

The Brown Scapular and other Scapulars

The history of Marian piety also includes "devotion" to various scapulars, the most common of which is devotion to the Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Its use is truly universal and, undoubtedly, it is one of those pious practices which the Council described as "recommended by the Magisterium throughout the centuries"(255).

The Scapular of Mount Carmel is a reduced form of the religious habit of the Order of the Friars of the Blessed Virgin of Mount Carmel. Its use is very diffuse and often independent of the life and spirituality of the Carmelite family. The Scapular is an external sign of the filial relationship established between the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother and Queen of Mount Carmel, and the faithful who entrust themselves totally to her protection, who have recourse to her maternal intercession, who are mindful of the primacy of the spiritual life and the need for prayer.

The Scapular is imposed by a special rite of the Church which describes it as "a reminder that in Baptism we have been clothed in Christ, with the assistance of the Blessed Virgin Mary, solicitous for our conformation to the Word Incarnate, to the praise of the Trinity, we may come to our heavenly home wearing our nuptial garb"(256).

The imposition of the Scapular should be celebrated with "the seriousness of its origins. It should not be improvised. The Scapular should be imposed following a period of preparation during which the faithful are made aware of the nature and ends of the association they are about to join and of the obligations they assume"(257).

The Mount Carmel brown scapular is the oldest among eight scapulars that have a Marian character and were approved by the Church. (Four of the others are white, one is blue, one black and one green.) The brown scapular owes its origin and existence to Saint Simon Stock who received a large brown scapular from Our Lady in a vision on July 16, 1251. A scapular is actually a sleeveless outer garment of a monk's habit that falls from the shoulders. The original significance implied that one was clothed with Mary's garment in the sense of being clothed with her attitudes and devotion to Christ. The small piece of cloth (or medal) used today recalls the intention of being clothed in the garments of salvation."

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel and St. Simon Stock, Pray for us.

"He who dies clothed in this habit shall be preserved from eternal fire. It is the badge of salvation, a shield in time of danger, and a pledge of special peace and protection."

Mensaje del Padre Marcelo

Un samaritano (...) tuvo compasión; y, acercándose, vendó sus heridas (...) y, montándolo sobre su propia cabalgadura...

Hoy, nos preguntamos: «Y, ¿quién es mi prójimo?» (Lc 10,29). Cuentan de unos judíos que sentían curiosidad al ver desaparecer su rabino en la vigilia del sábado. Sospecharon que tenía un secreto, quizá con Dios, y confiaron a uno el encargo de seguirlo... Y así lo hizo, lleno de emoción, hasta una barriada miserable, donde vio al rabino cuidando y barriendo la casa de una mujer: era paralítica, y la servía y le preparaba una comida especial para la fiesta. Cuando volvió, le preguntaron al espía: «¿Dónde ha ido?; ¿al cielo, entre las nubes y las estrellas?». Y éste contestó: «¡No!, ha subido mucho más arriba».

Amar a los otros con obras es lo más alto; es donde se manifiesta el amor. ¡No pasar de largo!: «Es el propio Cristo quien alza su voz en los pobres para despertar la caridad de sus discípulos», afirma el Concilio Vaticano II en un documento.

Hacer de buen samaritano significa cambiar los planes («llegó junto a él»), dedicar tiempo («cuidó de él»)... Esto nos lleva a contemplar también la figura del posadero, como dijo san Juan Pablo II: «¿Qué habría podido hacer sin él? De hecho, el posadero, permaneciendo en el anonimato, realizó la mayor parte de la tarea. Todos podemos actuar como él cumpliendo las propias tareas con espíritu de servicio. Toda ocupación ofrece la oportunidad, más o menos directa, de ayudar a quien lo necesita (...). El cumplimiento fiel de los propios deberes profesionales ya es practicar el amor por las personas y la sociedad».

Dejarlo todo para acoger a quien lo necesita (el buen samaritano) y hacer bien el trabajo por amor (el posadero), son las dos formas de amar que nos corresponden: «¿Quién (...) te parece que fue prójimo?». 'El que practicó la misericordia con él'. Díjole Jesús: 'Vete y haz tú lo mismo'» (Lc 10,36-37).

Acudamos a la Virgen María y Ella —que es modelo— nos ayude a descubrir las necesidades de los otros, materiales y espirituales.

Que Dios los bendiga. P. MARCELO.
