Welcome to Saint Anthony's

If you are new to St. Anthony of Padua Parish, please know how welcome you are to worship God with us. The motto of our parish is written in Latin over the front entrance: "The hardworking people of St. Anthony have built this Temple to the Lord." We know that we have been blessed with one of the most beautiful church most people have ever seen and that the Lord demands more of those who have been given more. Our goal is to allow the Lord to build with us a parish community of "living Stones" even more beautiful than the physical edifice in which we have the awesome privilege to worship Him. We would love you to become part of that building project!

2023 LENTEN MESSAGE

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It has been one year since the beginning of the war in Ukraine. We have seen the tremendous loss of life, property and the unimaginable suffering inflicted upon so many innocent people in that country. More recently, we also witnessed the tragedy of the earthquake in Turkey and Syria. There, too, we have seen an incredible loss of life and the unthinkable suffering of millions of people who were wounded, who lost loved ones, possessions, and a way of life that will never be the same.

Sometimes we take for granted the peace and prosperity that we enjoy and the blessings of being healthy and living in freedom. Lent reminds us that all things, as St. Teresa of Avila said, “All things are passing away:[but gratefully] God never changes.” It is a season to recall we are subject to pain and suffering, to loss and a cross at any time. Lent is a time for us to reflect and recognize how important our faith is in our lives and how important family is to each one of us; it is a time to embrace our faith and our family with generosity, faithfulness, and gratitude.

Jesus tells us in the Gospel that if we want to be His disciples, we must take up our cross each day and follow Him (Luke 9:23). Even though this is a challenging invitation and a difficult path to follow, it is still the best way to a life of ultimate happiness, peace, and salvation. When we embrace our crosses with love, faith and resignation-- knowing that we are not carrying it alone -- the burden becomes lighter and possible to endure.

Lent is also a time to reflect and recognize all that Jesus did for us by dying on the cross and shedding His blood for our salvation. We are called to deeper reflection on the Paschal Mystery - Jesus’ suffering, death, and Resurrection.

In his Lenten message this year, Pope Francis writes: “Lent leads to Easter: the ‘retreat’ is not an end in itself, but a means of preparing us to experience the Lord’s passion and cross with faith, hope, and love, and thus to arrive at the resurrection.”

How best to prepare for the glorious feast of Easter? By examining our actions, our attitudes, and our relationship with God with renewed scrutiny and by committing ourselves to repentance and conversion of heart. Now is the time; this is the opportunity of Lent. As a start, we can put into practice the Lenten disciplines of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. These offer wonderful means to support our resolve to deepen our faith and to help those around us in need.

It is my prayer that we all open our hearts to the Lenten journey ahead; that it be blessed and transformative. May we ever cherish our faith and be sustained by it, and may we never forget the suffering and crosses borne by our sisters and brothers across the human family.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Edgar M. da Cunha, S.D.V.
Bishop of Fall River

DO YOU BELIEVE IN MIRACLES?

May 22-24, 2023 - 6:30pm - 9:00pm

St. Anthony of Padua is hosting an EVENT for everyone with a "I will believe it when I see it attitude, don't miss this event."

Can miracles stand to the test of science?

- Exclusive film footage of a stigmatist who bleeds from her hands, feet and head. Are these the wounds of Christ? What does science has to say?
- A consecrated Communion Host becomes living Flesh and blood. Is it heart tissue? What does the science has to say?
- A scientist (former atheist), an attorney and a famous TV Journalist witness statue of Jesus weeping real tears and shedding real blood. Are these claims real? What does science has to say?

Mensaje del Padre Marcelo

SE TRANSFIGURÓ DELANTE DE ELLOS

Hoy, camino hacia la Semana Santa, la liturgia de la Palabra nos muestra la Transfiguración de Jesucristo. Aunque en nuestro calendario hay un día litúrgico festivo reservado para este acontecimiento (el 6 de agosto), ahora se nos invita a contemplar la misma escena en su íntima relación con los sucesos de la Pasión, Muerte y Resurrección del Señor.

En efecto, se acercaba la Pasión para Jesús y seis días antes de subir al Tabor lo anunció con toda claridad: les había dicho que «Él debía ir a Jerusalén y sufrir mucho de parte de los ancianos, los sumos sacerdotes y los escribas, y ser matado y resucitar al tercer día» (Mt 16,21).

Pero los discípulos no estaban preparados para ver sufrir a su Señor. Él, que siempre se había mostrado compasivo con los desvalidos, que había devuelto la blancura a la piel dañada por la lepra, que había iluminado los ojos de tantos ciegos, y que había hecho mover miembros lisiados, ahora no podía ser que su cuerpo se desfigurara a causa de los golpes y de las flagelaciones. Y, con todo, Él afirma sin rebajas: «Debía sufrir mucho». ¡Incomprensible! ¡Imposible!

A pesar de todas las incomprensiones, sin embargo, Jesús sabe para qué ha venido a este mundo. Sabe que ha de asumir toda la flaqueza y el dolor que abruma a la humanidad, para poderla divinizar y, así, rescatarla del círculo vicioso del pecado y de la muerte, de tal manera que ésta —la muerte— vencida, ya no tenga esclavizados a los hombres, creados a imagen y semejanza de Dios.

Por esto, la Transfiguración es un espléndido icono de nuestra redención, donde la carne del Señor es mostrada en el estallido de la resurrección. Así, si con el anuncio de la Pasión provocó angustia en los Apóstoles, con el fulgor de su divinidad los confirma en la esperanza y les anticipa el gozo pascual, aunque, ni Pedro, ni Santiago, ni Juan sepan exactamente qué significa esto de... resucitar de entre los muertos (cf. Mt 17,9), ¡Ya lo sabrán!

Que Dios los bendiga.
Pe. Marcelo da Silva, IVE
