Welcome to Saint Anthony's

If you are new to St. Anthony of Padua Parish, please know how welcome you are to worship God with us. The motto of our parish is written in Latin over the front entrance: "The hardworking people of St. Anthony have built this Temple to the Lord." We know that we have been blessed with one of the most beautiful church most people have ever seen and that the Lord demands more of those who have been given more. Our goal is to allow the Lord to build with us a parish community of "living Stones" even more beautiful than the physical edifice in which we have the awesome privilege to worship Him. We would love you to become part of that building project!

Pastor's message

Dear brothers and sisters, I want to thank all those who took part in the parish Bazaar this week. Once again it was a successful one, thanks to the volunteers and the bazaar committee who worked hard this year so that we may bring our parish family together. Today's collection is for the Archdiocese of the military service, priests who are serving to provide sacramentals and spiritual assistance to our troops and their families. Thank you for your generosity.

November month always leads us to reflect on the four last things that the Church teaches, death, judgement, heaven and hell. The reading of today reflect on the resurrection of the body. This is something that I love talking in my homilies at time because of the qualities of our bodies after the resurrection. We will be truly become the new 'superman, superwoman' of Christ if we live in the expectation of the transfiguration of our own body. Let see what the church teaches about it.

The Resurrection of the Body. It is Catholic teaching, defined by the fourth Lateran Council and clearly stated in the Catholic Creeds, that "all men shall rise again with their own bodies, which they now bear, to receive according to their works. This truth is to be found in the Old Testament, clearly and explicitly in the second book of Machabees: "The king of the world will raise us up, who die for his laws, in the resurrection of eternal life... it is better, being put to death by men, to look for hope from God, to be raised up again by him" 2 Mach. &:9-14) also the Lord defends the doctrine of the resurrection against the Sadducees: "...and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive."

Just as everything came perfect from the hand of God at the time of the creation, so everything will be restored to perfection after the Resurrection of the Body. The risen bodies will be invested with immortality. All the bodies of the risen will be identical with their earthly bodies; they will be entire and they will be immortal. But the bodies of the just will be distinguished by four transcendent endowments, often called qualities, impassibility, brightness, agility and subtil-

ity. a) Impassibility: the risen bodies will be beyond the reach of pain or inconvenience. (1 Cor.

15:42); b) Brightness: "it is sown in dishonor, it shall rise in glory" (1 Cor. 15:43) the risen bodies of the just shall shine like the sun, but their brightness will be of different degree in proportion to their holiness on earth. c) Agility: The body will be able to move with the utmost ease and speed wherever the soul wishes. d) Subtility: The body becomes subject to the absolute dominion of the soul, sharing in the souls' more perfect spiritual life, until it becomes itself like a spirit, like the glorious body of the risen Christ entered the Cenacle, though the doors were closed. As we approach to the end of the liturgy year c, let us meditate on the four last things. What are the four last things? The four last things to be remembered by all people are: Death, Judgment, Hell and Heaven.

Christus vincit! Christus regnat!

Christus imperat!

Fr. Mariano Varela, IVE

Liturgy Corner

The following teaching on Purgatory is taken from the My Catholic Faith! book – Chapter 8 – The Glorious and Final Things!

The Church Suffering: (continuation from last week bulletin)

Purgatory is the process, after death, of burning out the last of our attachments so that we can enter Heaven 100% freed of everything to do with sin. If, for example, we still have a bad habit of being rude or sarcastic, even those tendencies and habits must be purged.

How does this happen? We do not know. We only know it does. But we also know it's the result of God's infinite love that frees us of these attachments. Is it painful? Most likely. But it's painful in the sense that letting go of any disordered attachment is painful. It's hard to break a bad habit. It's even painful in the process. But the end result of true freedom is worth any pain we may have experienced. So, yes, Purgatory is painful. But it's a sort of sweet pain that we need and it produces the end result of a person 100% in union with God.

Now since we are talking about the Communion of Saints, we also want to make sure to understand that those going through this final purification are still in communion with God, with those members of the Church on Earth, and with those in Heaven.

For example, we are called to pray for those in Purgatory. Our prayers are effective. God uses those prayers, which are acts of our love, as instruments of His grace of purification. He allows us and invites us to participate in their final purification by our prayers and sacrifices. This forges a bond of union with them. And no doubt the saints in Heaven especially offer prayers for those in this final purification as they await full communion with them in Heaven. It's a glorious thought and a joy to see how God has orchestrated this entire process for the ultimate purpose of the sacred communion to which we are called!

Mensaje del Párroco

“No es un Dios de muertos, sino de vivos, porque para Él todos viven”

Hoy, Jesús hace una clara afirmación de la resurrección y de la vida eterna. Los saduceos ponían en duda, o peor todavía, ridiculizaban la creencia en la vida eterna después de la muerte, que —en cambio— era defendida por los fariseos y lo es también por nosotros.

La pregunta que hacen los saduceos a Jesús «¿de cuál de ellos será mujer en la resurrección? Porque los siete la tuvieron por mujer» (Lc 20,33) deja entrever una mentalidad jurídica de posesión, una reivindicación del derecho de propiedad sobre una persona. Además, la trampa que ponen a Jesús muestra un equívoco que todavía existe hoy; imaginar la vida eterna como una prolongación, después de la muerte, de la existencia terrenal. El cielo consistiría en la transposición de las cosas bonitas que ahora gozamos.

Una cosa es creer en la vida eterna y otra es imaginarse cómo será. El misterio que no está rodeado de respeto y discreción, peligra ser banalizado por la curiosidad y, finalmente, ridiculizado.

La respuesta de Jesús tiene dos partes. En la primera quiere hacer entender que la institución del matrimonio ya no tiene razón de ser en la otra vida: «Los que alcancen a ser dignos de tener parte en aquel mundo y en la resurrección de entre los muertos, ni ellos tomarán mujer ni ellas marido» (Lc 20,35). Lo que sí perdura y llega a su máxima plenitud es todo lo que hayamos sembrado de amor auténtico, de amistad, de fraternidad, de justicia y verdad...

El segundo momento de la respuesta nos deja dos certezas: «No es un Dios de muertos, sino de vivos» (Lc 20,38). Confiar en este Dios quiere decir darnos cuenta de que estamos hechos para la vida. Y la vida consiste en estar con Él de manera ininterrumpida, para siempre. Además, «para Él todos viven» (Lc 20,38): Dios es la fuente de la vida. El creyente, sumergido en Dios por el bautismo, ha sido arrancado para siempre del dominio de la muerte. «El amor se convierte en una realidad cumplida si se incluye en un amor que proporcione realmente eternidad» (Benedicto XVI).

Que Dios los bendiga.

Padre Marcelo
